U.S. TO BACK LIMITED REICH REPARATIONS

Marshall Gives Big Four Compromise Formula To Break Deadlock.

By The Associated Press

MOSCOW, April 3—Secretary of State Marshall told the council of foreign ministers today the United States would be willing to consider limited German reparations from current production, but only after the allied powers agreed to leave Germany a number of plants now earmarked for capital reparations.

At the same time Marshall proposed the compromise formula, he reaffirmed in a paper circulated among Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov of Russia, British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin and French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault that present demands to increase the reparations agreed upon at Potsdam cannot be considered by the United States."

This was a restatement of his previous opposition to Molotov's demand for $10,000,000,000 over 20 years.

Based On Assumption

Marshall's new proposal, which presumably was taken up briefly in a secret session last Tuesday, is based, it said, on the assumption that the German level of industry is to be raised and that plants now marked for reparations export can be used to boost the level.

The heart of the Marshall formula was that the nations which would have received the plants should agree instead to receive an equivalent value in German reparations.

"It must be recognized that the further increase in the level of industry will reduce the number of plants available for removal on reparations accounts," Marshall's paper said.

"If the proposals for reparations from current output are to be considered, these proposals must, in our view, be limited to compensation from the plants which were destined for removal but which are no longer available by reason of an increase in the level of industry to aid the European economy.

U. S. To Study Question

"If reparation from current output is conceived in this way, the United States delegation is willing, without commitment, to have its experts study this question."

Earlier, Gen. Lucius D. Clay, principal advisor to Marshall on Germany, left by plane for Berlin in a move interpreted as indicating the United States delegation saw little prospect of settling any German issues at the current conference.

There was no indication that the Marshall formula would be at all satisfactory to Russia. It was a question whether it might provide a basis for further negotiations to break the reparations deadlock which was barring progress on all major issues.

Marshall's Limit

Members of the American delegation, however, said the proposal represented about the extreme limit to which Marshall is willing to go in order to meet Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov on this vital issue.

The Russians have asked $10,000,000,000 in reparations from Germany over a 20-year period, some of it from current production, and the stand of the western powers against this demand, coupled with Molotov's refusal to retreat from it, has blocked all efforts to reach a settlement of any basic German issues.

Gen. Lucius D. Clay, the principal adviser to Marshall on German problems, left Moscow today by plane for Berlin—a move interpreted as indicating the United States delegation here sees little prospect of settling any German issues at the current Big Four conference.

Clay, the commander in chief of U. S. forces in Europe, took off from a Moscow airport in a special plane shortly after noon. He had been summoned here by Marshall soon after the council of foreign ministers began its Moscow conference.

There was no official announcement as to why he left, but the development was accepted in most quarters as a positive reflection of the American delegation's feeling that there is scant likelihood for basic German agreement—hence, Clay is not needed here any longer.

Marshall gave an indication of his own feelings at last night's Big Four session, where he proposed that the whole issue of Germany's future political organization be thrown into the lap of the Allied control council in Berlin without further efforts to reach agreement here.

Two Marion Religious Leaders To Make Latin American Tour

DR. CLEM E. HERSHEY

REV. MARVIN LEWIS

Dr. C. E. Hershey and Rev. Marvin Lewis To Make Trip in Behalf of Youth for Christ.

By ELAINE BALLINGER

Undertaking another program of international activity for Youth for Christ, Dr. C. E. Hershey, director of the Marion Youth for Christ services, and Rev. Marvin Lewis, co-leader, will leave Columbus by plane Monday for Central and South America. Dr. Hershey is vice president of the Ohio Youth for Christ Leaders group. He is pastor of Emmanuel Baptist church of Marion. Rev. Lewis, who has engaged in evangelistic work with headquarters here, will soon transfer his headquarters temporarily to Pensacola, Fla. On the Latin American tour emphasis of his work will be in the field of child evangelism.

Having traveled extensively in this country in the interest of Youth for Christ, Dr. Hershey branched out into the international field when, with Mrs. Hershey, in June, 1945, he made a trip to Alaska. They established their first Youth for Christ at Juneau.

The forthcoming trip of the two youth workers has been approved by Dr. Torrey Johnson, international president of Youth for Christ, and Dr. Ed Darling, regional vice president of the Great Lakes area, and is being made under auspices of the Central American Missions, independent, undenominational missionary organization with headquarters in Dallas, Tex. It is under this organization that Miss Pearl Tuttle, a Marion woman, is serving as a missionary at Boquete, Chiriqui, Panama Canal Zone, one of the stops in Dr. Hershey's and Rev. Lewis' itinerary. All the mission stations which they will visit are Central American Missions stations, although they will visit three South American countries as well as the Central American cities. The organization was founded in 1890 by Dr. C. I. Scofield, Biblical scholar from whom the Scofield reference Bible, well known to Bible students, gets its name. Rev. S. T. McKinney is now president.

Purpose of Tour

Aim of this tour, as with the European tours made by Youth for Christ international, is to open up new Youth for Christ fields, Dr. Hershey stated. Some countries reached had had no previous introduction to the movement whatsoever. Work of the trip will be "a survey of missions in our neighboring countries with the thought in mind of establishing greater harmony and a closer fellowship with our Latin American friends in Youth for Christ," he said. Financing of the project is taken care of through the gifts of Christian friends, as is all work of Youth for Christ, Dr. Hershey explained.

Youth for Christ "invaded" Europe last year, and huge rallies were staged from Greece to Norway, in England, Holland, Switzerland and other countries, and made such an impression there that, it was stated by Youth for Christ international leaders, the U. S. army requested the work be launched in Germany. One team of workers planned an entrance for Youth for Christ into China, and other teams are going

FURNITURE STOLEN IN STORE BURGLARY

Auctioneer Lists Goods Worth $1,000 Missing.

Theft of approximately $1,000 worth of furniture from the furniture auction store of Sam Dorsey, located on route 4 at the north edge of the city, was reported today by the Marion county sheriff's office.

The breakin was believed to have occurred late Tuesday night or early Wednesday, sheriff's officers said. No fingerprints were found at the scene, leading investigators to believe gloves were used by the intruders.

The building was entered, sheriff's officers said by breaking a window in the rear and the furniture was carried out a back door. The breakin was discovered when employes returned to work Wednesday morning.

Among the items which officers listed as missing were five electric sweepers, nine coffee makers, a radio, 16 electric irons, five sets of silverware, three clocks, four table lamps, four electric toasters, nine sets of door chimes, magazine racks and sewing cabinets.

4TH YOUTH HELD ON CHARGE OF ROBBERY

Marion County Gang Suspect Arraigned at Kenton.

Special to The Star

KENTON, April 3—A fourth Marion county youth was arraigned Wednesday in Kenton on a charge of armed robbery of the Forest Inn near Kenton March 2.

He is Samuel Suffler, 19, of near Marion. He pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Worley Smith and was bound over to the Hardin county grand jury under $2,500 bond.

Stiffler was apprehended in Coldwater, Fla., after Hardin County Sheriff Randall Clark, informed of his whereabouts, sent a description and warrant to Florida authorities. He was brought to Kenton Tuesday by Hardin county authorities and Marion Police Captain Ora DeWees.

Other Marion county youths being held in Kenton as alleged members of a gang which committed burglaries and holdups throughout this area in February and early March are Delmer and Billy Swearingen, both 18. They are held for the Hardin county grand jury, which meets next week. A 16-year-old Morral youth, also implicated in the crimes, is held for appearance in juvenile court.

A fifth suspected member of the gang, John Taylor, 22, of Marion, is held in Columbus on charges of armed robbery, burglary and grand larceny. He will appear before the Franklin county grand jury next week.

SENTENCED TO DEATH

KRUG ORDERS 518 MINES CLOSED DOWN AS UNSAFE

Bandit Takes $322 in Holdup of Restaurant

The Spot restaurant at 435 West Center street was held up last night by an unmasked bandit who pulled a .32 caliber blue steel revolver on the bartender obtaining $322 in bills. The robbery was reported to police at 10:17 p. m.

Tom Vlachos was tending bar at the time and a woman customer, seated at the bar, witnessed the holdup. About 12 other persons were there at the time but so quietly and smoothly was the holdup staged that only Vlachos and the woman were aware of it.

The bandit walked to the middle of the bar, leaned on it, and motioned to Vlachos. Threatening with the gun he demanded that he be given all the "folding money" in the cash register. He leaned over the bar to see that the register was emptied, witnesses said.

The bandit is believed to have cleared the way for the robbery by decoying a policemen to another restaurant, the LaMar, which is about two blocks west of the Spot on the other side of the street. A man answering the description of the robber stopped a patrolman about half a block west of the Spot and reported that a fight was in progress at the LaMar.

No Disturbance Found

No disturbance was found at the LaMar nor were there any signs that one had been in progress, police said.

The bandit was described by the witnesses as being about 22 years old, weighing 180 pounds and between five feet ten inches and six feet tall. He was wearing overalls and a shop cap. Witnesses said he had a crooked nose.

When he turned to leave he pointed the gun at the customers in the booths. Tom Vlachos slammed the drawer of the cash register just as he was leaving in an attempt to attract the attention of his brother, Jack Vlachos, restaurant proprietor who was in the kitchen at the time. Startled, the robber turned menacingly, just before leaving the restaurant.

Car Speeds Away

Manager Vlachos was then notified of the robbery and ran outside to investigate. Jim Black who was sitting on a stool near the window said that the man turned down Olney avenue and almost immediately afterwards a car was driven speedily around the corner and headed east on Center street.

A city motorcycle patrolman drove by headed west a few minutes afterward and turned in the street, stopping when hailed by Jack Vlachos. He was told of the holdup but arrived too late to pick up the trail.

SCHOOL BILL HEADS FOR CUT

Senate Pares, Then Approves, Measure Now Set for Ohio House Action.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 3—The Daniels-Cramer school bill, pared from more than $100,000,000 to $88,000,000 a year during its trip through the senate, headed today towards possible further cuts in the house.

The senate by a vote of 32 to 3 passed the controversial measure yesterday, and Chairman Dan S. Yoder (R-Wayne) of the house education committee said his group would start hearings on it next Wednesday.

Representatives have indicated they would seek to trim the school foundation appropriation closer to Gov. Thomas J. Herbert's recommendation of $80,000,000 a year for the biennium.

The house, meanwhile, passed and sent to the senate a bill outlawing portal-to-portal pay suits more than one year old. The current limitation is three years. The vote was 101 to 24.

Hamilton Votes "No"

Voting against the Daniels-Cramer school subsidy was the Hamilton county Republican delegation whose substitute bill was killed the previous day in the senate education committee. The three were Sens. Kyle F. Brooks, Fred G. Reiners and Stanley G. McKie.

Principal benefits in the Daniels-Cramer program were listed as:

Increasing the flat grant from $45 to $55 a year for each elementary pupil and from $54 to $66 for high school students.

Boosting equalization grants from $67.50 to $105 for elementary pupils and from $81 to $125 for high school students.

Changing the basis for allocations from average daily attendance of pupils to average daily enrollment.

Advancing from 3 to 4½ mills the tax on realty and tangible personal property required for school districts to obtain additional aid.

Putting "teeth" in the requirement for boards of education to use 75 per cent of their foundations funds for teacher salaries.

Sponsoring Senator Shocked

Daniels said he was shocked to learn that some districts were not meeting that requirement and that some teachers went unpaid for months.

He offered a floor amendment, which was approved, to guarantee $2,000 annual minimum salaries to teachers of six or more years experience who hold four-year provisional certificates or better.

Chicks Help LaRue Man Oppose Bill

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 3—Several one-day-old chicks, colored in traditional Easter pastels, peep-peeped and scooted their erratic ways around a senate agriculture committee table today.

The committee was studying legislation to outlaw the sale of artificially colored chicks and ducklings during the Easter season.

Sen. C. I. Powell (R-Springfield), author of the proposal told the committee children are not humane in their treatment of pets.

But, H. C. Hodson, LaRue, O., hatcheryman, said it was up to parents to supervise handling of baby chicks and that neither the coloring process nor color itself is harmful.

Then, he loosed the little chicks, which ignored subsequent discussion and skated around wildly.

The committee postponed until next Thursday action on the Powell bill.

POWER PLANT UNION WILL MEET TONIGHT

Scioto Workers To Confer with CIO Leaders.

Bargaining rights for employes of the Scioto Plant, Ohio Public Service Co., will be discussed tonight at 7:30 when members of Local 353, Utility Workers Union of America (CIO) meet with CIO officials from Cleveland headquarters in the Prospect township hall.

Announcement of the meeting was made today by T. G. Ellinwood, president of the union.

Tonight's meeting follows a 30-day strike notice filed last month with the National Labor Relations board. The strike vote was unanimous among the 50 employes of the Scioto plant, all members of Local 353. Union members pointed out they have not been able to obtain recognition and as a result have not participated in wage increases and contract proceedings.

At the time the vote was taken, Mr. Ellinwood pointed out the action was not against the company and emphasized that relations between the union and the company always have been harmonious.

In a NLRB election last fall workers of the plant voted to join the Operating Engineers union, (AFL), but following the election no union representative appeared to sign up the men, Mr. Ellinwood explained. Employes of the plant then met, without any outside pressure, he said, and voted to form Local 353 CIO. However, the Operating Engineers still hold the bargaining rights at the plant as a result of last fall's election, even though it has no membership at the plant.

Attending tonight's meeting will be W. R. Munger and C. L. Lewis, CIO officials of Cleveland. Mr. Munger recently was in Washington where he conferred with officials of the NLRB on the matter. What action is taken tonight will depend on what Mr. Munger has to report on his Washington conference, Mr. Ellinwood said.

BURIAL RITES HELD FOR JESSE MASON

Body Laid in Family Plot in Mt. Gilead Cemetery.

Burial services for Jesse H. Mason, superintendent of Canton schools since 1928 and of Marion schools from 1923 to 1928, were held in Mt. Gilead Rivercliff cemetery Wednesday at 12:30 p. m.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist church in Canton Tuesday afternoon.

Approximately 50 persons attended the burial, held at the family plot in Mt. Gilead cemetery. Members of the family of Mr. Mason's widow, the former Miss Ruth Wheeler of Marengo, are buried in adjacent graves.

Members of the immediate family present, in addition to Mrs. Mason, included a brother of the deceased, Dorsey M. Mason of Montpelier, Ind., and his family.

About a dozen people from Marion were present, including teachers who had worked under Mr. Mason.

Many civic leaders, members of the board of education and school principals from Canton attended, as well as people from Mt. Gilead.

The closed coffin was taken from the hearse and lowered into the grave by a group of athletic coaches, teachers and personal friends. A short prayer was read by Rev. George Parkinson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who assisted in the funeral services Tuesday.

Among the group from Canton were J. D. Ruridon, executive editor, and Henry Schaffner, general business manager, of Brush-Moore Newspapers, Inc.

GIVEN BIRTHDAY HONOR

A short business session in the Y-Indus room in the Y.M.C.A. was followed by a program and social hour at the home of one of the oldest members, Mrs. Margaret Wheeler on East Center street, when Harriet Beecher Stowe Tent No. 48, Daughters of Union Veterans met Tuesday afternoon. The occasion honored Mrs. Wheeler, who was 85 years old, and she was presented a gift. Mrs. Gail Montgomery read an Easter Prayer and Mrs. Alma Anderson gave a poem, "On Easter Morn." Mrs. Florence Miller also was presented a gift.

Marion Girl Has Close Ties With Group To Sing Here

When the Harmonaires, musicians from Cincinnati's radio station WLW make an appearance here April 15 at Edison Junior High school, it will not be just "another concert" to one young woman of Marion who is interested in music. Her special interest in the event will stem from her friendship with the family of the director and her personal acquaintance with the head of the group himself.

Miss Patricia Moore of 207 Carhart street has known the Reid family for some time and is a close friend of Miss Eulah Burch of Columbus, niece of Raglan Reid, Harmonaires director, as well as of Mr. Reid and his wife. Her estimate of Mr. Reid's ability is the highest, as it is of the family's hospitality. While attending Ohio State university, Miss Moore practiced piano often in the Reid home which is a center and meeting place for numbers of musicians of Columbus, she says.

Practicing Attorney

Mr. Reid, a practicing attorney of Ohio's capital city, was born in Bermuda. He came to this country to study law, and went to school at Wilberforce university at Xenia, then enrolled in Ohio State from which he received his law degree.

During his college days, Mr. Reid was a member of a quartet which attracted considerable comment, the other three members of which went on to join the now wellknown Southernaires.

In search of someone to assist them in their music, a group of eight men employes of the Curtiss-Wright plant at Columbus, found that leader in Mr. Reid. The group had started as a quartet in November, 1941, singing at the war plant company events and at civic, fraternal and religious affairs.

When Mr. Reid became director of the group, one of his first actions was to add four new men, among them Harold "Hum" Clark, a pianist he considered of exceptional talent.

Know 400 Selections

He set up a strict schedule of rehearsals and decided no engagements would be accepted until the group had practiced and committed to memory at least 400 numbers. They then made appearances for war chest, war bond and Red Cross campaigns and at canteens and veterans hospitals. On Sunday, Nov. 25, 1945, the Harmonaires presented their first program of song on WLW, and June 23, last year the group became featured artists on a half-hour Sunday morning broadcast carried by a network of 54 NBC stations.

The Harmonaires will appear in Marion under auspices of the Business and Professional Women's club. Ticket sales headquarters is the Economy Savings and Loan Co. office, or tickets may be obtained from club membebrs.

Man Locked in Room For Five Days Rescued

By The Associated Press

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 3—A homeless man, accidentally imprisoned five days without food or water in a room high in the city hall tower, was rescued yesterday.

The man, who identified himself as John Crelier, was discovered by a city employe who went up the tower to repair a broken clock.

Crelier was hungry and thirsty, collapsed and was removed to a hospital. His condition was reported satisfactory.

He said he had gone there one day last week because he had no other place to go. He was uncertain what day it was but Arthur Fiegner, a city maintenance worker, said he locked the iron studded door leading to the tower last Friday. The door had remained locked until today.

"I know I cried a little," Crelier said, "walked the floor and slept as much as possible. I finally gave up and was resigned to die in that hole."

Truman Calls For Farm Safety Week

WASHINGTON, April 3—President Truman yesterday called upon the nation to observe National Farm Safety week starting July 20, saying that more fatal accidents occur in farming than in any other occupation.

His proclamation said that caution and intelligent effort by every farm family "will lessen the suffering and economic loss caused by accidents."

"I also urge farm people everywhere to set aside a specific time during National Farm Safety week for family discussions of methods for the prevention of accidents," he continued, "in order that these producers of the nation's food may live and work with greater safety."

Long Live Somebody!

THE DEATH of King George II, the on-again-off-again king of the Hellenes, adds fresh uncertainties to a situation composed exclusively of stale, familiar uncertainties.

The late king, in his professional role, was never more than the best of a poor lot. He was used more than once as a symbol to rally the Greeks, but the vicissitudes of his times has robbed him of what little strength he possessed as a symbol.

His successor, Prince Paul, will be no stronger. It is not a matter of individuals, but of a monarchic tradition that has come apart at the seams. The Greeks want many things—some of them even seem to want domination by Russia—but there is nothing in their desires about a king George, now Paul, soon someone else can be presented only as the lesser of evils. The monarch has no strength in himself.

The United States, which wants to help the Greeks maintain what is left of their tattered sovereignty, because that seems the logical way to create a bastion against Russia's drive toward the Mediterranean, was embarrassed by King George, whose restoration was a British idea. It will be embarrassed by King Paul, unless something happens to make it look as if there was more behind the Greek monarch than the intervention of a foreign power.

Franco Stands Alone

FRANCISCO FRANCO'S declaration that Spain still is a monarchy, even though it has had no king for 16 years, does nothing to change the status of Spain. El Caudillo will continue to rule. If a successor should be named during Franco's lifetime, he will be a monarch cast in the mold prescribed by Franco.

Franco's statement is based on a desire to build Spain's world prestige. As things stand, the once-proud empire of Ferdinand and Isabella doesn't even play a second fiddle in the concert of nations. Even so little a thing as participation in United Nations councils would allow Franco's partisans to feel that they were not world pariahs.

Franco's statement doesn't change Spanish policy in any way. Spain is as much a fascist police state as it was in the days when it was teetering on the brink of joining the Axis powers in war. Exigencies of the times have caused it to soft-pedal some of its practices but, as in past years, the only Spaniard who can call his soul his own is an exiled Spaniard.

Franco says the rest of the world finally has joined him in a loathing of communism. That is true, but what Franco stands for is in no greater esteem.

A Job Well Done

ACTIVITIES of the nation's draft boards, as such, concluded Monday, although the work of winding up their tasks will continue for another year under supervision of the office of selective service records.

The draft board member exemplified democracy. Called to render decisions which in many cases vitally affected the lives of his friends and neighbors, he had a disagreeable but necessary task to perform. Like jury duty, it was thankless work, but unlike jury duty it was a continuing job. Many a board member burned the midnight oil and spent Sunday poring over records when the manpower need was acute. On the whole, the assignment was handled conscientiously and justly.

All Ohioans can agree with Col. C. W. Goble, state draft director, who said, "I can't say enough in praise of board members. Through their patriotism they performed a task which never can be compensated for in dollars and cents."

Good Politics Now

FRANCIS WALDRON, the Communist party wheelhorse who defied the house committee on un-American activities recently, has publicly challenged the committee's right to exist.

This is a reminder that the only reason the committee ever did exist was to fill the vacuum created by the New Deal's lack of interest in communist infiltration. During the New Deal and up until recently, the committee was the only agency of the government to show persistent, active interest in subversion by Communists, Fascists, Nazis and the homegrown varieties of totalitarianism. Its rough-riding over civil liberties was condoned because the alternative was to do nothing at all about minorities with the common aim of abolishing civil liberties entirely. The executive branch of the government wasn't interested.

It is interested now. The election returns of last November have been digested. The Truman administration has decided it is good politics to rout out the reds. The House committee on un-American activities now belongs to the Republican majority, which mustn't be given the privilege of making political capital out of the American public's determination to make things hot for homegrown communists.

Even without the committee, the United States no longer would be the pushover for communist infiltration that it was during the New Deal.

Battle Royal in California

By RAYMOND MOLEY

Able Gov. Warren Tangles with Oil Companies.

LOS ANGELES, April 2—Bitter controversy has been notably absent in Governor Earl Warren's long and popular career as a public official. But it has broken out in a virile manner in the past few weeks. The issue is the state highway program, and Warren's adversaries are the big oil companies. Not since Hiram Johnson's battles with the Southern Pacific has anything like this been seen in California.

Gov. Warren

There is no dispute about California's need of more and better highways. The state is growing at an incredible rate. City streets are congested, and state highways are choked. Earlier and more modest estimates for street and road construction have been radically revised, and great sums must be found for the new projects.

In 1945, the state division of highways submitted what was called a "critical deficiency program," amounting to $631,000,000 for 10 years. After a study by a legislative committee, a new program appeared two months ago, calling for a 10 years' expenditure of between 2 and 3 billions. To finance this, Governor Warren wants an additional 2-cent tax on gasoline. California's gasoline tax is now 3 cents. This is low among the states, and, unlike most states, California uses its gas tax money exclusively for road construction.

The big oil companies have vigorously opposed this increase. They argue that the state already has a good deal of money for road construction; that the imposition of a tax should be deferred until the program is well on its way and more money is needed; that plans for financing highway construction should not be made for 10 years, and that some of the cost should come from general revenues because of land values increased by new construction.

At this point, the question involves economic judgment. No doubt Warren feels that in a time of such prosperity as it now prevailing, taxes should be levied and money should accumulate for slimmer times ahead. The oil companies feel the pressure of present taxes and contend that the mass of the people should have some of their tax burden eased.

The position of the oil companies has been made more difficult by the fact that they have raised the price of gasoline more than 2 cents in the course of nine months. They explain this on the ground that the price of crude oil in Texas has been raised and that this increase has spread throughout the mid-continent field. Tney contend that when such a raise takes place all oil products throughout the West must be raised, or supplies of those products will be drained to the East.

Calls for Inquiry

Warren, however, charges that these increases are the result of intra-industry practices which should be investigated. Hence, he has called on the attorney general of the United States to see if a violation of the anti-trust laws is involved. These matters have been discussed publicly by Warren in very emphatic terms, and the oil people are extremely indignant. They say that no conspiracy is involved; that oil prices, when fixed by the biggest company, must prevail in the whole industry; and that, in this instance, the circumstances described above made the price increase necessary.

This rift between Warren and the oil people is causing some distress among Republicans in the state. They point out that, in the past, relations between the governor and the heads of the industry have been friendly and that the industry has supported him in his campaigns. It must be added that Warren has consistently taken a singularly independent position, not only toward what might be called "big business," but also toward the traditional Republican party in the state.

Whether a truce can be worked out is not clear. The legislature is divided on the tax. The state senate favors the governor's program. But the assembly has voted down all gasoline tax increases. A compromise may be reached. But it is also quite possible that the whole program may fail in this session.

What effect this controversy may have on Warren as a possible presidential candidate is also speculative. There have been times in the past when a controversy with big economic groups has made a governor's national reputation. But in this case the issues are neither moral nor political. They involve economic judgments. And those judgments cannot be proved until years have passed.

Just a Minute

Primo Should Stick To Squeezing Oranges

A Miami lady has filed suit for $25,000 against Primo Carnera, charging that he hugged her so hard she has been suffering "severe pain."

That seems a pretty stiff price for a man to have to pay merely for endeavoring to demonstrate that his affections are not to be taken lightly.

Apparently, though, she is one of those delicate women . . . the kind who bruise easily and heal expensively.

Incidentally, the fact that he has hurt even one of the weaker sex comes as a surprise to those who have thought Carnera one of the species of strong men who tear phone books in half, a page at the time.

The Ambling Alp, who is currently touring the country as a wrestler, will be advised henceforth to confine his grappling to the ring. In matdom such mishaps, while equally unintentional, are considered occupational rather than litigatible.

Meanwhile, the lady doubtless reasons that turn-about is fair play . . . and so she's putting the squeeze on Primo.

The Impossible Choice

By STEWART ALSOP

JERUSALEM, April 3—Since the United States is undoubtedly going to have to participate in an eventful Palestine settlement, it would be a good thing for Americans to get some notion of what Zionism really is. Unfortunately, the way not to understand Zionism is to listen to the kind of American Zionist who makes the most noise at home and is most distrusted by the Jews here. The way to understanding, rather, is to see Zionism at work in the Jewish collective settlements in Palestine. It is a stirring experience, for one can read the meaning of the movement in the very eyes of the people.

There are three kinds of eyes. There are the eyes of the older men, who have been in Palestine since before Hitler, or shortly after, and have spent the last 15 or 30 years in the hard, strange, simple life of the collectives. These older men, in their patched overalls, with their weather-beaten skin and calloused hands, have faces for the most part totally indistinguishable from the faces of Vermont farmers. They have the movement, slow and relaxed, and the hesitant, rather shy manners of farmers everywhere. But in their eyes there is still a suggestion, a veiled but visible consciousness of the fears to which European Jews, as a permanent minority and convenient whipping boy, have long been subject.

In every collective there are some of the new refugees just out of Europe. To most Americans the brutal statistics of the Nazi massacres—6,000,000 Jews shoveled into the gas chambers, used as human guinea pigs, shot in the back and piled in mass graves—have become faintly unreal. Heads are shaken in dutiful horror and the subject quickly changed.

Burned in Memories

For these new refugees, there is no such simple forgetting. The Jewish community in Palestine has embarked on an heroic program for the rehabilitation of these survivors of mass slaughter, mentally as well as physically. Even so, the mark of their experience is everywhere visible on them; in the quick nervous movements, the quick turning of the heads, the strained smile, the sudden break in the voice. Their eyes are filled with the reflection of an unforgotten fear.

Finally, there are the Sabras, the young people who were born and have lived all their lives in Palestine. Their nickname derives from the Palestine cactus, which is prickly and tough on the outside, but good to the taste within. Much has been written about this new generation of Palestinian Jews, so much and in such extravagant terms that a certain skepticism is inevitable. Yet it is all true. Their eyes differ from those of the refugees or the older generation. They are casual eyes, guileless, often rather stupid, eyes you might see in a small, prosperous farming community in Iowa or Connecticut. They are eyes which have never known fear.

The Arabs' Argument

All these people are so deeply infused with faith in the Zionist cause that one might as well urge the advisability of caution on an early Christian martyr as argue the Arab case to the members of a collective settlement. Yet the Arabs have a case and a case which they feel deeply. One remark by a young and intelligent Arab gives the gist of it:

"You Americans want to force enough Jews on us, against the will of the great majority here, where our people have lived for more than a thousand years, so that we should cease to be a majority and the Jews should dominate us. At the same time you refuse to open your own doors. If that is the American version of democracy, give me the Russian version."

For those officials and newspaper men who have tried to retain a certain objective, Palestine is an unpleasant post, for all that it has been made, largely by Jewish effort, easily the most agreeable country in the Middle East. Those who have become neither wholly pro-Arab nor pro-Zionist suffer from a sort of painful schizophrenia. The fact is that both Arabs and Jews have an almost unbreakable moral case. The situation is especially galling to Americans, who have somehow imbibed the cheerful notion that if you want anything hard enough and long enough and study enough graphs and statistics a "solution" will magically emerge.

HOW LONG CAN THIS KEEP UP?

Path Eased for Greek Aid

By WALTER LIPPMANN

IF the administration accepts the Vandenberg amendment promptly and generously, a large majority in congress for the Greek-Turkish bill ought then to be assured. The amendment cures the most serious defects of the original Truman proposal. It does that exactly, completely and handsomely, and if adopted it will not only strengthen the United Nations, which has been grievously injured, but will reduce decidedly the risks of our intervention in a tangled, explosive, distant and unfamiliar part of the world.

The heart of the Vandenberg amendment is the clause which would make it American law that "the President is directed" to withdraw aid "if requested by a procedural vote in the security council or a majority vote in the general assembly of the United Nations." This disposes at the outset of, let us say, Wallace's argument that nothing may be done except by UN, and the administration's argument that since UN cannot act, it may be by-passed. Vandenberg has restored the essential principle of the charter, which is that an important action, affecting international security, may not be carried out unilaterally—that is to say without submitting to the authority of the United Nations.

The adoption of his amendment will give to the United Nations the power to disapprove our intervention, and to decide that it should be discontinued. Therefore, until and unless the United Nations request us to withdraw, we shall be acting, not on our own isolated judgment, not unilaterally, but with the consent of the United Nations.

Goes the Limit

Vandenberg has gone the limit in seeing to it that the sincerity of the proposal cannot be questioned. He has not merely renounced the American veto. He has also renounced a British veto on our behalf. Under a procedural vote, a majority in the Security Council would prevail even if Great Britain and the United States were opposed.

If he had wanted to be tricky, he would have said only that on a vote, the United States as the interested party would abstain. But as everybody knows that Great Britain is no less an interested party, and would never vote to have us withdraw from a country which it had pressed us to enter, a failure to renounce the British veto would have impaired the good faith and sincerity of the whole business.

This is the right thing to do in view of our deep commitments to the United Nations. It is also the most expedient thing to do. For if ever the day comes when a majority of the United Nations is against us in Greece and Turkey, our position will be untenable. It will mean that the enterprise has failed to do the very thing which the president said it was designed to accomplish—to rally and unite the democratic, or at least the independent nations, opposed to the expansion of the Communist power. If we cannot get and hold the confidence and support of a majority of the United Nations, then we had better write off the intervention as a bad job.

A Statesmanlike Approach

As a matter of fact we shall certainly have the support at the outset of much more than a majority. We are much more likely to hold that majority if, as the Vandenberg amendment would make necessary, the United Nations have continually to face the fact that they must share the moral responsibility because they have the power to criticize, to hold us accountable and, if they choose, to vote that we should withdraw.

The Vandenberg amendment is, therefore, a statesmanlike way of strengthening our position, not only morally after all we have said about the United Nations, after all we have said against Soviet unilateralism, but also politically in making a success of this exceedingly difficult enterprise.

It is exceedingly difficult, especially the Greek part of it, and while the Vandenberg amendment does not remove the difficulty, it goes a considerable way toward correcting a second radical defect in the original administration proposal. This was the offer of unqualified support to the present Greek government.

Reaction in Greece

Reports from Athens, particularly the confidential and, I believe, quite trustworthy report published Tuesday by Arthur Krock of the New York Times, say that the Greek government treated the Truman message as a green light to fight not only Communists but the moderates and republicans as well. The reports say that the promise of unqualified American support has been followed by a wave of reactionary terrorism, of arbitrary arrests and deportations, which are indistinguishable from the worst practices which we are deploring and opposing.

This was to be expected after the hot unqualified generalities with which we accompanied our proposal to intervene. What is surprising is that the State department should have thrown away its bargaining power with the Greek government, should have lacked the prudence and foresight to make its assistance conditional, should have given a corrupt and reactionary and obviously unrepresentative government a certified blank check. It is surprising because one of the most important lessons Gen Marshall brought back with him from China was that this is a mistake. In his report on China he said that "the reactionaries in the government have evidently counted on substantial American support regardless of their actions." As a result he was unable to influence the actions of the reactionaries.

The same result will follow, has already followed, in Greece. The Vandenberg amendment does in some measure repair the mistake. For by stating that aid to Greece may be withdrawn under certain conditions, the promise is no longer unqualified. The amendment provides that aid may be withdrawn not only if requested by the United Nations, or by a legitimate Greek government, but also "if the president finds that the purposes of the act have been substantially accomplished or are incapable of satisfactory accomplishment."

This restores American bargaining power and influence with the Greek government — that should never have been relinquished.

All in all, Vandenberg has done an extraordinarily fine piece of work. It shows a grasp both of the realities and of the imponderables, and a capacity for constructive criticism, which will justly resound to his credit and greatly help his country.

From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Saturday, April 3, 1937.

The nation's soft coal industry after a one-day shutdown, was free of a strike threat with a new contract in effect granting miners wage increases aggregating $85,000,000 annually.

Promotion of Lieut. Kenmore M. McManes to the rank of lieutenant commander was one of 457 junior officer promotions approved by President Roosevelt. A member of the class of 1918 of Marion High school, he left school and completed his work in the Annapolis preparatory school, following his appointment to the U. S. Naval Academy by U. S. Senator Warren G. Harding.

Spurred by announcement of more than $1 000 raised by an advance gift corps, workers in the Boy and Girl Scout financial campaign started on the 1937 drive to raise a joint budget of $9,500.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin B. Spohn of East Church street left for New York City, where they were to be joined by Mr. and Mrs John L. Brandt of Mt Vernon avenue and the following Monday sail on the SS Statendam for a 10-day cruise to Havana, Haiti and Jamaica.

The Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Letters for Special Delivery

To the Radio Powers That Be.

DEAR RPTB:

Do any of you fellows have kids? Do you ever look at the stories of juvenile delinquency? Do the official reports of a crime wave rising to new highs every day roll off your knives? Do you think child education should be linked up with more arsenals? I am just wondering, on account of I have been listening to the special radio kiddy-program which spray the American nursery and fireside with arson, assault, mayhem, murder and assorted crimes.

Lately I have been paying special attention to radio's idea of what the well agitated infant should hear. And it is my conclusion that you are of the opinion you are operating a National School of the Air in the Development of Bloodthirstiness, and a supreme contempt for Good Citizenship.

Oh, I know you camouflage these crime specials with a feeble moral lesson spread so thin that it does not even fool the family cat and which is strictly in the pattern of other agencies of entertainment that glorify crime. And then think they make it all distasteful by a 15 second concluding episode in which the glamourized gangster gets winged instead of being elected President. So don't pull that one on me.

I have a terrific yen to see inside of a radio mogul's mind and find out what makes him think a child can go through an afternoon of stickups, robberies, hijackings, bank crackings, etc., and not be done any harm just because he gets a Mother Goose rhyme, a salestalk on breakfast mush and a free badge in the sheriff's club. I yearn to take a radio program man's head apart (I got that idea from a kiddie serial) and see if he really believes the wholesale planting of crime techniques into the home and nursery is all right because aren't the kiddies getting a nice jingle, and being let into a box top contest?

My own idea, Mister Radio Mogul, is that a kid today has to have the makings of an archbishop if he came through a week of these radio thrillers without being convinced that murder is the handmaiden of good salesmanship; that a gun in each hand is the top test of good citizenship and that the worst that can happen to a follower of criminal ways is that he will have to stop shooting now and then for station identification.

There must be millions of American kids growing in with the notion that the only thing wrong with Jesse James, Attila the Hun, Captain Kidd, Bluebeard, Al Capone and Billy the Kid was that they were always being impeded by commercials and time signals.

I have kids of my own and I can tell you that, due to radio, there is only an outside chance mom and I can ever make the kids believe Abe Lincoln, George Washington or Grover Cleveland were as good men as Buck Rogers, Hop Harrigan and Captain Midnight. We have already given up the idea of convincing them that Alexander Graham Bell or Tom Edison were as bright as Tom Mix and Superman.

Yours terrifiedly,
ELMER.

EX-GOVERNOR GEORGE H EARLE of Pennsylvania says that in the light of the atom bomb and the Russian aggression, there is no more than an even chance that 10 per cent of us will be alive in five years.

Been listening to that Buck Rogers program, eh?

Ima Dodo, whose mother runs a rooming house, phoned in today to say she thinks Lang Collyer is hiding there. "A strange man who rented a room yesterday called downstairs to complain that his room hadn't been tidied up by the police yet," she says.

The Big Storm

By TRUMAN TWILL

COTTON CORNERS

Dear Nephew Maybe you'd like to hear about our big storm. This is one they'll be talking about for years to come. In front of the store there was a drift belt-buckle high on a 12-foot Indian. It was that way all over the township. Wherever something slowed down the snow a little, it piled up. Everybody got snow-bound.

I must say, however, that some of us got snow-bound mighty easy. It was remarkable also, how much moving around went on behind the snowy curtain, as you might call it. There were rescue expeditions rushing back and forth like crazy. The only St. Bernard dog within miles is at Joe Heath's place, but the spirit of St. Bernard doesn't depend on dogs, believe me. I myself—one lone victim of the storm—was rescued three times this afternoon and joined two emergency dashes o'er the billowing drifts to bring comfort and succor to deserving shut-ins. Jack Bellamy got out his sleigh and team, and we rescued in style.

The storm also had its serious side. Children were set back in their education and had to while away the time building snow houses and having fun. People couldn't get into town to spend their money as fast as the merchants wanted them to. A good many barns and houses now need roof repairs. The wind blew down that big elm which stood in the work of the Lime Ridge road. It ruined Harry Maynard's big front window that his wife was so proud of. Harry had to put all the boards in the dining room table, up-end the table and fill up the hole. That was a special-size window and can't be replaced in a hurry either.

A lot of things happened—tree limbs down, outdoor advertising signs blown over (isn't that a shame?), automobiles stuck, buses held up, milk trucks stranded and so on. The only casualty I've heard about is Mrs. Springer. She was going down the back steps to feed her chickens, thought she was all the way down and stepped off into the snow. She was two steps short. It threw her, and she sprained her ankle. Mrs. Springer is a fleshy woman—around 200 pounds. Personally, I can't imagine anyone that fat not knowing how many steps there are, but women get confused.

There was no particular damage at our place as far as I can see. We lost some branches, but they were dead ones. I suspect we loosened up the willow tree, though I can't see any list to port. Every time we have a hard rain followed by high winds, I'm afraid that willow will go over. The garage doors banged around more than was good for them due to the fact your aunt neglected to close them when she put the car in the garage Monday night. I suppose I should say business at the store has been good, but I couldn't put my heart into it. Business has been as good as I want it to be. It hasn't bothered me any. After all, how could a man be free for rescue expeditions going and coming if business was good?

It reminds me of the explanation a fellow gave me once about flood and disaster in the river valleys. He claimed newspapers misrepresented the true situation. He said the folks looked forward to flood time with relish. It was an excuse to break the monotony. No one was expected to go to work because everything was haywire anyway. There were bound to be accidents, of course, and a lot of damage was done, but the flood was a welcome interruption because it gave people a chance to escape from the routine that drives them stircrazy. That is my notion of the big storm at Cotton Corners. It was a barn-buster, and everybody had a real nice time.

DAILY LENTEN MEDITATIONS

IN THE CHRIST OF THE CROSS WE GLORY

THE LORD'S SUPPER. Read I Cor. 11:23-26. "This is My body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of Me." Luke 22:19.

THE Lord's Supper is a very precious experience to all believers. Here we are made supremely aware of the sacrificial love of God in Christ. The broken bread and the crushed grapes are indicative of the life freely given to redeem the world. Here, we are made aware of our fellowship together in Christ. Here, we confront the mystery of redemption that comes through sacrifice. here, we may experience the renewal of Christ living in us.

"This do in remembrance of Me," said Jesus and he would have every believer very seriously ponder the truth that He gave His body into death for us, and that He shed His blood for us that we might receive forgiveness.

Let us go reverently to the Lord's Supper and commune with Him.

REV. R. W. FAULKNER,
Pastor, Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church.

Japs Name 3 Soldiers As Their Attackers

By The Associated Press

TOKYO, April 3 — Japanese truck drivers today pointed out three American soldiers among five defendants as their attackers when two of their companions were clubbed to death on a road west of Tokyo Jan. 31.

The five Air Corps enlisted men have pleaded innocent to charges that they beat to death four Japanese and a Korean, slugged five others and wrecked restaurants, a hotel and a home on a wild rampage in a jeep.

One witness tapped Cpl. Willard L. Grooms of Seaman, O., as the man who swung at him with a tire chain.

Another driver told the commission trying the case that Cpl. George E. Craig of Winchester, O., threw a piece of rock at him hitting him in the temple. A few seconds before, he saw Craig push another Japanese into a cooking fire, he testified.

At 7:45 p. m. the choir will give an Easter Cantata.

At the North Canaan Methodist church, morning worship will be held at 9:30 a. m. with a sermon by the minister and communion service. Sunday school will be at 10:30 a. m. in charge of Mr. Conard Clouse. Rev. S. E. Kaetzel is the minister.

TO FILE COMPLAINTS ON UNION CO. PHONE SERVICE

"Citizens Committee" To Appeal To State Utilities Commission.

Special to The Star

MARYSVILLE, April 3—Representatives of nearly every organized civic and agricultural group in Union county, as well as a number of other citizens last night at a meeting of the "citizens committee" approved a plan to file with the state utilities commission formal complaints regarding service in the county.

Five separate exchanges serve the county at the present time, and G. L. Kingsmore, chairman of the committee, stated a questionnaire survey of the subscribers revealed that the main complaints are: overloading of party lines, delays in calls, too small toll-free area, noisy reception, discourtesy, and too frequent breakdowns of phones.

MRS. GORDON RITES SAT

MARYSVILLE—Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon in nearby Milford Center for Mrs. Bessie Ora Gordon, 65, who died Wednesday following a three-year illness. She is survived by her husband, Bert Gordon, two daughters, Mrs. Myrtle May Ball of Columbus, Edna Rachel, at home, a son, Chester E. Gordon of Plain City; two brothers and two sisters.

White, chairman, the members authorized the purchase of equipment for the laboratory and maternity department at a cost of more than $1,800. The purchases will include a pair of hospital water sterilizers to cost $1,200, an incubator for the maternity department at a cost of $380, a water bath for the laboratory and another invalid walker

Following the business session the remainder of the afternoon was devoted to sewing for the baby clinic, which with aiding in equipping the laboratory are major projects of the board.

A meeting in two weeks will be with Mrs Robert C. Owens of Owens Station, with Mrs. Carl W Sawyer and Mrs. Ralph Rawlings as associate hostesses

CONGRESS LOOKS FOR PORTAL COMPROMISE

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 3—House and senate conferees, confronted by what one member described as "substantial differnces" in anti-portal pay legislation, today tackled the task of reaching a compromise.

Once that is accomplished it remains to be seen whether President Truman will sign or veto the bill. There has been predictions of a veto.

The No. 1 aim of the bills passed by both houses is to erase liability for $6,000,000,000 in back pay claims against industry. These resulted from a supreme court ruling that wages could be sought for nonproductive activities controlled by the employer, such as portal-to-portal walking time

Meanwhile, counsel for employes of the Mt. Clemens (Mich) Pottery Co, whose portal suit resulted in the supreme court ruling, moved yesterday to avoid another immediate test in the high court and thus force congress and Mr Truman to act.

After the tribunal handed down its decision, the case was returned to Federal District Judge Frank A. Picard of Detroit to determine how much the pottery workers should receive. Picard dismissed the suit on the ground that the work time involved was inconsequential.

The employes appealed to the Cincinnati court Attorney General Tom Clark then asked the supreme court for an immediate review of the action

Attorney Edward Lamb yesterday filed a motion to dismiss the appeal. A representative of the workers said this would head off another supreme court ruling right away.

Lamb told newsmen Clark's move was "designed to eliminate the necessity of congress and the President taking a position on the portal issue"

JURY HEARS $22,081 JUDGMENT ACTION

A. E. Shultz Seeks Damages for Injuries in Accident.

The $22,081 94 judgment suit of Alfred E. Snultz against Fred L. Hinamon was being tried before a jury in common pleas court today.

Moore and Myers are attorneys for Shultz and Donithen, Michel and Davis for Hinamon. The litigation follows an accident June 16, 1945, while the plaintiff was employed by the F. & Y. Construction Co in constructing a building on the Huber Manufacturing Co. grounds. Snultz charges that the bed of a dump truck, being driven by Hinamon, caught on a telephone wire, the wire striking him and dragging him to the ground. He asks for compensation for injuries and damages he claims he received as a result of the accident.

The jury inspected the accident scene this morning and the defendant was on the witness stand for cross examination. The trial is expected to last until tomorrow

U. S. EFFORTS TO AVERT PHONE STRIKE SLOWED

Government Strives To Break Negotiations Impasse.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 3—Government efforts to avert next Monday's threatened coast-to-coast telephone strike moved slowly today

With 287,000 workers preparing for the walkout, federal officials concentrated on trying to break an impasse in negotiations here between the American Union of Telephone Workers and the long distance division of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The long distance workers union is one of 39 affiliates of the National Federation of Telephone Workers, which is pushing demands for $12 weekly pay increases and other contract revisions.

Joseph A. Beirne, NFTW president, pledged that if the A T. and T, or its subsidiary firms in the Bell system, fail to make counter-offers to NFTW demands, the strike will come off as scheduled for 6 a. m. Monday in each time zone.

Every sign pointed to an Easter weekend "crisis" on the stalemated negotiations, with any agreement likely to come only at the eleventh hour.

SUGAR BLACK MARKET NIPPED

5 Out on Bond as Stamp Counterfeiters; 15 Others Sought.

By The Associated Press

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., April 3 —Five men seized in connection with the issuance of counterfeit sugar ration coupons totalling more than 2,000,000 pounds waived preliminary hearings yesterday and today were free on bonds pending action of the May term of the federal grand jury here.

Assistant U. S. Attorney Philip A. Baer said warrants similar to one on which the men were seized had been issued for 15 others believed to have participated in operations of a $500,000 black-marketing involving shipments of illegal sugar to moonshiners and industrial users in Ohio, West Virginia, Tennessee and the Carolinas. Arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Joseph W. Fitchett, the men, all West Virginians, were identified by U. S. Marshal C. M. Adkins, as: Clarence A. Lane, 41, of Colloden, a trucker; Homer W. Dillon, 34, of Huntington, former grocery firm employe; Frank Neff, 45, of Huntington, trucker; V. Perrh, 40, of Barboursville, grocery proprietor.

Lane, Dillon and Neff posted $2,500 bonds, Edwards, $1,500, and Perry, $1,000.

Special agents of the department of agriculture's sugar rationing administration alleged that the rings secured more sugar with counterfeit ration stamps than any other black-market activity yet uncovered. They said the arrests climaxed three months investigations, adding that the gang had been operating for six months.

The agents named Lane as leader of the ring, alleging he obtained the counterfeit stamps with which Dillon and Edwards allegedly made sugar purchases from the C. D. Kenney Co., a division of the Consolidated grocers' Corp of Chicago.

Dillon was alleged to have arranged sales by the company's branches at Columbus and Athens, O., using counterfeit stamps and ration checks drafted on the Kenney Co. bank account.

Fictitious names of dealers and wholesalers in five states allegedly were supplied Lane by Dillon and Edwards to produce if federal agents stopped truck drivers making deliveries, Baer said.

Baer said most of the counterfeit stamps handled by the ring had been traced to Chicago where 71 persons recently were indicted for possession and transfer of counterfeit ration coupons.

Mrs. Laura Ellen Oder Dies Near Sycamore

Special to The Star

SYCAMORE, April 3 — Mrs. Laura Ellen Oder, 84, died at 1 p. m. Wednesday at her home northeast of Sycamore, following an illness of nine weeks. She was born June 27, 1862, in Crawford county.

She and her husband, Charles Oder, whom she married Dec. 21, 1882, were members of the 50 year club in the neighborhood, which is composed of couples who have celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Surviving with her husband are two children, Glen Oder of Tiffin and Mrs. Mary Curlis of Sycamore.

Funeral will be at 1:30 p. m. Saturday at the home and at 2 o'clock at the Plankton church. Burial will be in the Rock Creek cemetery, north of Melmore.

Better Quality Lime Sought For Farm Purposes

Action to procure a better quality of lime and sufficient quantities of tile for farmers cooperating with the Marion county, Union, Divide, and Headwaters Soil Conservation District will be taken as a result of a meeting of supervisors of the four districts Tuesday night at the Richwood High school.

A resolution to contact lime companies serving the four-county area, in an effort to encourage better quality of lime production, was passed following a discussion of present lime deliveries, which the supervisors described as of "poor quality."

Problems of tile drainage installation and procuring of tile were discussed and it was decided that several of the supervisors will contact tile manufacturers in an attempt to secure sufficient tile for farmers cooperating with the districts.

H. E. Hecker of Mt. Gilead, district conservationist, reported that the U. S. Soil Conservation Service has acquired a ditching machine from Army surplus equipment, which will be made available to the supervisors. It was decided to request the machine for use in the four districts.

Calvin W. Baldinger of near Marion, who presided at the meeting, was reelected chairman of the group. Lemoine Rinehart of near Mt. Gilead, was reelected secretary, and Shade Watkins of near Marysville was named director to represent the group in the state federation of district supervisors. Mr. Watkins succeeds Mr. Baldinger, who made a report of federation activities to the supervisors.

AUSTAIN RITES HELD

GALION—Funeral services for John L. Austain, 59, who died in City hospital here Monday afternoon, were held Wednesday at 2 p. m. at the Volk funeral home. Rev. N. R. Somerville of First Methodist church officiated and burial was made in Fairview cemetery.

Fritz Heisler, guard coach of the Cleveland Browns, gave Y's Men's Service club members a look at professional football from the inside at the club's weekly dinner meeting Wednesday night at the Y. M. C. A.

In addition to a 30-minute talk he showed a moving picture which followed the Browns from their training camp days last fall through their highly successful season, during which they won 14 and lost two games.

Heisler has been associated with Paul Brown, Cleveland coach, since his playing days at Massillon High school. Although standing only about five feet, six inches and weighing little more than 150 pounds, Heisler played guard on Brown's championship Massillon High teams, graduating in 1933, and went on to Miami university to make All-Ohio guard. He began coaching with Brown at Massillon, went with him to Ohio State in 1941 as freshman coach, and is now guard coach in Cleveland. He was a lieutenant in the Navy, during which time he coached a top-flight air cadet team at DePauw.

Although dubious about coaching in professional football, Heisler said he was pleasantly surprised last year. All-Americans, whom he feared would be difficult about taking coaching, went right along with Brown's "fundamentals first" method of coaching after they got used to it, Heisler said.

He feared he would miss the college crowd spirit, but no body of fans could have been more enthusiastic than the Cleveland people, he said. They even went as far as tearing down the goal posts. He stated that he doubted that the Browns would be able to duplicate their top-notch record of last year in 1947.

Marion coaches present were William Thomas, W. N. Wiley and Ralph Simpson of Harding High school; Kenneth Somerlot of Edison Junior High school; H. Gatchell of Vernon Heights Junior High school; Pete Howison of Central Junior High school, and Gene Fetter of St. Mary High school.

Other guests were Robert A. Kelly, Forest K. Sharrock Sr., Sam Birnbaum, and Richard Keller.

SCHOOL PAY BILL INDORSED BY CLUB

The board of the Marion Lecture-Recital club, at a luncheon meeting Tuesday noon at Hotel Harding, voted indorsement of Senate Bill No. 48 which provides for increased pay for teachers of the public schools. Mrs. A. G. Birch, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Delegates elected to the biennial convention of the national Federation of Music clubs in Detroit, Mich., April 20-27, are Mrs. Harry T. Williams and Mrs. O. D. Anderson, with Mrs. John Lacey and Mrs. Harry J. Mautz as alternates. Mrs. Ralph B. Mills, counsellor for the Juvenile Lecture-Recital club, announced that Mrs. Mautz and Mrs. LeRoy Schneider will serve as delegates representing the local Juvenile club at the convention, and will cast the votes to which the Marion children's group is entitled, in the absence of Mrs. Mills who will be unable to attend.

Mrs. Lewis Wills, local chairman for National Music week in May, announced the slogan for the week, "Music is especially needed now," and stated that the week will be observed with various musical events in schools, churches, clubs and industry as last year. Director of the Marion Civic chorus, Mrs. E. N. Hale reported on plans for a presentation by that group May 4, first Sunday of National Music week, at Epworth Methodist church. John B. Ham, baritone of Wittenberg college, Springfield, will be the guest soloist.

The state music festival for young musicians will be May 3 at Dayton, and will be attended by 12 members of the Junior Lecture-Recital club and several members of the Juvenile club, who will take part.

Mrs. J. C. Woods, who returned recently from Florida, talked on music activities in that state. She reported subscriptions to the Ohio Music magazine have reached 600. The Lecture-Recital club's part in Fine Arts day May 6 will be centered on India, Mrs. Walter Moore reported. Final program of the year for the club was announced for next Monday night at the home of Mrs. Warren Wise, with Helen VanLoon of Columbus as guest artist. Mrs. Miriam Smart Mooney of the faculty of Ohio State university, formerly of Marion, will speak.

Ruhr Mines At Standstill

By The Associated Press

ESSEN, April 3—The Ruhr's giant coal industry came to an almost complete standstill today as most of the area's 300,000 miners ignored British appeals to remain on the job and walked out in a demand for more food for their families.

Workmen at the mines in Dortmund and Hamborn, who struck earlier in the week, entered the pits as usual, however, apparently satisfied with the part they had already taken in the demonstration.

Miners in the Cologne area—technically not part of the Ruhr—remained on the job. But reports from throughout the Ruhr indicated that most of its 170 miles were idle in a strike expected to cause a loss in production of half a million tons of badly needed coal.

Quick Approval Seen For UN Palestine Meet

SCHEDULE VOTE ON LILIENTHAL

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 3—President Truman's senate lieutenants checked the membership roll name by name today in preparation for a vote they expect to spell defeat or victory in their drive to confirm David E. Lilienthal as chairman of the atomic energy commission.

That vote — on a motion to send the nomination back to committee—was set for 5 p. m. today by unanimous consent of a senate thoroughly saturated with seven days of more or less continuous debate.

The chamber put in an 11 hour and 22 minute session yesterday, which kept members at their desks until nearly midnight.

Deeply Concerned

The administration, deeply concerned by the 10-week delay since the nomination was sent up to Capitol Hill, made no attempt to minimize the importance of the recommittal motion offered by Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) Monday.

Its objective is to permit an FBI check on Lilienthal and the five other atomic set-up nominees and a further committee quiz into the people the commission members have hired since they took over their posts under recess appointments last winter before congress convened.

"Adoption of the motion would be tantamount to defeat of David Lilienthal," a highly placed strategist in close touch with the White House told a reporter.

At the same time, he said he believed that Lilienthal's supporters could muster a margin of "two or three" votes on the decisive roll call.

Vandenberg Awaits Turn

One of the loudest trumpets in the Lilienthal band was awaiting the signal to solo. The performer: Senator Arthur Vandenberg (R-Mich), president pro tempore of the senate, chairman of its foreign relations committee, and foreign policy adviser to the administration.

COAL PROBE NEARS END

CENTRALIA, Ill., April 3—A state probe neared conclusion and a federal investigation was to begin today in the central coal mine disaster which Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) said might cause tightening of safety rules in all of the nation's 2,100 coal pits.

HIGHWAY WORKERS' SAFETY DRIVE SET

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 3—The highway department, which is always preaching safety to the driver and hiker, has started a new safety campaign for its own 7,400 workers.

Director Murray D. Shaffer announced that a safety supervisor and four deputies would be appointed to work with division engineers, superintendents, and foremen in a program to cut down lost time and money resulting from carelessness with tools, state cars, and other equipment.

Shaffer said that highway workers, mainly in the maintenance and repair departments, suffered 1,345 injuries and nine deaths last year, and 1,167 injuries and 11 deaths in 1945. The accidents cost the state $196,296 last year and $147,096 in 1945, plus respective losses of 71,476 and 60,636 working days.

Figured statistically, he added, Ohio highway workers last year lost 17.82 hours out of every million man-hours worked, against 9.83 for quarrying, 3.6 for foundries, and 13.44 for electric utilities. The average for all industries is 13.66 he said.

CHURCH AT PROSPECT PLANS EASTER SERVICE

To Begin With Sunrise Program at 6:30 A. M.

The Easter day observance at St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran church at Prospect will begin with a sunrise service at 6:30 a. m. followed by a breakfast at 7:30. Sunday school will be at 9:30 and the worship service with Holy Communion at 10:30.

The theme, "From the Open Tomb to the Open Heart," will be used for the sunrise services in charge of the young people of the church. Short talks will be given by members of the Luther league with Easter songs and Scripture readings. The pastor, Rev. Paul E. Dobberstein, will preach a sermonette entitled "The Easter Message of Life," and the Angel of the Resurrection and Joseph of Arimathea will speak in character. Following the service, a breakfast will be served at the Prospect High school and everyone is invited to attend. The persons who were received as members will be guests, and the breakfast will be served by the ladies of the congregation and league members.

"The Risen Lord and His Disciples" will be the lesson topic for the Sunday school hour. During the worship hour, besides Holy Communion, the choir will sing, "Now Is Christ Risen," and an Easter anthem will be given by a chorus of junior girls. A special sermon by the pastor will be on "The Mighty Fact in the Easter Gospel."

Final Lenten services were scheduled for Good Friday evening and Holy Communion was to be held Thursday.

Thursday next week at 2 p. m. the Missionary Aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. G. A. Mueck. Mrs. Harry A. Lauer will discuss the topic, "Back to New Guinea in Faith." The Junior Mission Band will meet at 2 p. m. Saturday, the meeting having been postponed a week due to Easter.

out into various parts of the world.

In preparation for their southern journey, for protection of their health, the Marion men have been given a series of preventive "shots" against tropical diseases and ailments that are found primarily in the countries they will visit.

Leave Columbus Airport

Itinerary of the trip includes takeoff from Columbus at 7 a. m. Monday (travel will be by air all the way), departure from Houston, Tex., for Mexico City, then on to San Salvador, Guatamala; Managua, Nicaragua, Boquete and David, Panama, Balboa, Panama; Quito, Ecuador Caracas, Venezuela, Port-au-Prince, Haiti, and Havana, Cuba Rev. Lewis then plans to go on to Jamaica. Dr Hersney's plans are to arrive in Cincinnati, Saturday, May 2, and to be back in Marion for his services the next day.

While in Quito, the party will have the facilities of a radio station HCJB, and its English-speaking broadcasts for radio messages The station is a missionary project and operates on a wave length that can be received in nearly any part of the world It is managed by Clarence Jones

Dr. Hershey has been active in Youth for Christ work almost since its inception a few years ago, and it was only a few months after his arrival in Marion, in the summer of 1944, that with the help of Rev. Lewis and a group of interested lay members of various congregations he organized the movement locally. The services are held the last Saturday night of each month at the Masonic hall, drawing large attendance. Before entering the ministry, he had prepared for a career in music and had his own orchestra. Rev. Lewis also has had training in music, and the two often add to the musical programs of the youth meetings with instrumental and vocal numbers The chorus which Dr. Hershey composed and used in the first Alaskan Youth for Christ meeting, "I'm in Love with Jesus," he has had translated into Spanish for use in this forthcoming tour.

Only 3 Days Left To Register For Primary in May

An estimated several hundred persons in Marion have only three days left in which to register or transfer in order to be eligible to vote in the May 8 primary elections Deadline for registration and transfers is Monday at 9 p. m.

Election board officials today estimated the total city registration at 14,500 and said they believed several hundred residents must either register or transfer in order to be eligible to vote May 8

The election board office is open daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. On Friday, Saturday and Monday the office will be open until 9 p. m. to enable residents to register and transfer before the deadline.

Persons who must register include those who have failed to vote in any election within the last two years, those who will become 21 years old before the November election, or those who have moved into the city. Persons who have moved from one city precinct to another since last voting must transfer.

Monday also is the beginning date for casting absentee ballots in the primary election. Absentee ballots may be cast by persons who expect to be more than 50 miles from their voting precinct on primary election day.

LEWIS

the coal mines safe, except his lack of desire to do so."

Public Disregard Blasted

Lewis called the mines "death traps" and said there is a "calloused disregard of the public" for the condition of mine workers

He said that the 111 men who died at Centralia produced 160,000 tons of coal annually and the production is lost because there will be nobody to take their place.

"I doubt," Lewis thundered, "that any one within the sound of my voice can tell where one man can be found to go to Centralia and mine coal."

The hearing opened with subcommittee chairman Max Schwabe (R-Mo) declaring the members "want to hear any and all constructive suggestions which you have to offer that will contribute to the welfare and the safety of the miners"

Three Drivers Fined On Speeding Charges

Roy E. Young, 52, of route 2 Marion was arrested on Bellefontaine avenue at 3:49 p. m. Wednesday and charged with speeding. He pleaded guilty in municipal court this morning and was fined $15 and costs.

Richard L. Drollinger, 20, of 625 Buckeye street was arrested on West Center street and charged with speeding at 10 07 p. m. Wednesday. He pleaded guilty in municipal court this morning and was fined $15 and costs

Donald A Hill, 29 of Mansfield was arrested for speeding on East Center street at 8.20 a m. today He pleaded guilty in municipal court and was fined $15 and costs.

Only Loss in "Fire" Is Dinner Meat Course

Only fire damage reported Wednesday was the total loss of the meat course of the dinner of the R. A. King family of 275 Park boulevard. Firemen received a telephone alarm yesterday at 2 p. m., but arrived at that address to find that smoke filling rooms in the house came from burning meat in a kettle on the stove

PAY BOOSTS GRANTED AT GALION HOSPITAL

Special to The Star

GALION, April 3—A unanimous vote of city council Tuesday night passed the amended salary ordinance covering the employes of Galion City hospital, and gave salary increases to the nurses and staff, ranging from $20 to $40 a month.

The ordinance was given its second and third readings at the meeting before the vote was taken. It provides paid vacations consisting of one week after one year service; 10 days after two years service, and two weeks for service of three years and over. All employes are to receive two meals a day, and nurses $5 a month for laundry when on duty.

Several nurses and physicians were present to head the ordinance passed.

Several representatives of Galion industrial plants attended the council meeting and asked to meet with council as a committee together with Mayor William Amann, to talk kover the matter of power for their plants. C. R. Kammerer of the Hercules Steel Corp., Norman Schnelker of the Central Ohio Steel Products Co., and Ralph Cobey of Perfection Steel Body Co., addressed council and the mayor regarding future power for their plants.

The industrial spokesmen asked Mayor Amann if the new diesel equipment which the city is planning to install for auxiliary power for the Galion electric light plant, will provide enough power when local plants are expanded. After considerable discussion, it was decided to hold a meeting next Tuesday night when council will meet with industrial heads.

BACHELOR AT 103. Dan "Uncle Dan" Young (above) celebrated his 103rd birthday Wednesday with the observation that he might marry if he could find a "girl" about his own age. The retired farmer, who received friends in the South Bend, Ind., home in which he has lived for 85 years, added that he was not interested "in any young girls from 85 to 95 years of age." Washington, D. C., Connecticut Take U. S. Safety Honors

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, April 3—The state of Connecticut and the city of Washington, D. C., were named today as grand award winners in the 1946 national traffic safety contest conducted by the National Safety council.

The grand awards were for—doing the most that could be done practicably for traffic safety."

Connecticut had a mileage death rate of 4.9 (death a 100,000,000 vehicle miles) or about half the national rate. Washington D. C., cut its traffic death toll from 76 in 1945 to 59 in 1946.

For excellent traffic safety conditions for a period of five years the council made the special awards including:

Coshocton, O.—Five years without a traffic death.

All states and 1,355 cities participated in the contest covering 1946 records.

SELLS BUSINESS INTEREST

FREMONT, O., April 3—R. R. Trubey, former Lima, O., attorney and president of the Clyde Porcelain Steel Co., disclosed today he had sold his interests in the Clyde firm. Declining to divulge the name of the buyer he said he was "retaining my other interests in plants at Baltimore, Lima and Connorsville."

Folks Like Trading at Lennon's

You will like the way you are met with a smile. Even during the hectic war years no one ever received a sharp reply from a Lennon clerk. If you asked for something we did not have, we tried our best to help you find it.

When you call we try to be friends. Of course we don't sell everyone who comes in but we do our very level best to help you wherever we can.

Lenons' employees are the highest paid people in their lines in Marion. They are happy in their work. They know they are being well paid to be of service to you. That is why you expect more from a Lennon employee. They are proud of their work.

Our customers are proving that high wages do not mean high prices. Thrifty, careful buyers tell us repeatedly that they save at Lennon's. And it must be true for our sales are running way ahead of even last year. High wages and large volume are just plain common sense.

We show good merchandise at the very lowest prices consistent with good business and our goods are sold with assurance of your satisfaction.

Take Mattresses for example. A Stearns and Foster Mattress costs more than some others because it is worth more. A Stearns and Foster Mattress is the acme of sleeping comfort. When you buy one you know that it is backed up by more than 100 years experience of fine mattress making. We sell them with a guarantee of satisfaction or your money back. For solid comfort try a Stearns and Foster Mattress and Box Spring. It will make you our friend for life.

11 KILLED IN BLAST, FIRE

By The Associated Press

CLINTON, Mo, April 3—An explosion and gunpowder-fed fire destroyed a fireworks manufacturing plant yesterday, burning to death 11 of the 28 employes working in the one story frame building and injuring four.

One of the injured was in a critical condition Ten of the victims died in the explosion and fire and the 11th succumbed in a Clinton hospital.

The workers were making toy buzz bombers in the Brown Manufacturing Company for Fourth of July sale. Shortly after the blast, the cause of which was not known, flames were so intense that firemen were unable to get closer than 100 yards from the building

All of those who died were between 50 and 70 years old.

Identification Difficult

The bodies, burned almost beyond recognition, were taken to the city hall where relatives came to make the identification Some of the victims were burned so badly identification was only possible through rings and other personal effects or through teeth.

C S Knoles, a worker, said the flames swept through the buildings in a matter of minutes and four-year certificates would receive the $2,000 minimum under the measure. Educators said only a few instructors would benefit by the minimum salary amendment

Daniels in his floor address on the school bill defended the foundation program as the best method known to pay the teachers and take care of school needs

Daniels asserted bar tenders and street cleaners were earning more money than some teachers and that as a result they were leaving the profession and 40 per cent fewer than normal were entering classrooms

Hits School Lobby

Brooks told the senate his opposition to the bill resulted from what he described as "steam roller" tactics of the school lobby He termed it the largest pressure group in the state

Crawford County Jail To Get New Porch

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, April 3 — After years of recommendations by the county grand jury for repairs and replacements to the porch at the county jail, work was started this week in removing the porch preparatory to building a more modern porch to the building

The outside of the building also is to be painted this year, commissioners have announced.

California Pair To Face Murder Charges Together

By The Associated Press

SANTA ANA, Calif, April 3—By their own assertion still very much in love, 17-year-old Beulah Louise Overell and her fiance, George Gollum, 21, will face superior court action together on charges of murdering her wealthy parents, Mr. and Mrs Walter E Overell.

Superior Judge Franklin G West, sitting in juvenile court, ruled yesterday that the blond heiress was not to be considered a juvenile in the bizarre yacht slaying case, although she won't be 18 until April 30

So, tomorrow morning, she and Gollum, 220-pound ex-navy radioman, will be arraigned in Judge West's superior courtroom, both as adults.

Many Exchanges To Close Good Friday

The New York stock and curb exchanges and domestic grain and livestock markets will operate as usual on Saturday, April 5.

WANTS TO LEAVE SCHOOL, SHOOTS SELF

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, April 3 — A 14-year-old Lemert school youth was in Bucyrus City hospital today suffering from a gunshot wound which his companions claimed was self-inflicted because the youth's parents would not permit him to quit school.

The youth is Jack Zurcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Zurcher of Lemert. The youth fired a .32 caliber revolver bullet into his mouth in a field near the Lemert school after classes had been dismissed yesterday afternoon.

The incident happened after school children had gathered at a general store in Lemert where Zurcher was reported to have told his classmates he was angry with his parents because they would not allow him to quit school After bidding farewell to them he walked across the road into a field and fired the revolver into his mouth, witnesses said

He was taken to Bucyrus City hospital where his condition today was reported good. Hospital attendants said no attempt would be made to remove the bullet, which lodged at the base of the brain With the exception of losing his front teeth the youth apparently was not seriously injured, hospital authorities said He is in the seventh grade.

Lemert is located approximately eight miles northwest of Bucyrus.

Killer's Eyes Sent to N. Y.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O, April 3 — Corneas transplanted from the eyes of Russell Eugene Koons executed last night in the Ohio penitentiary's electric chair for the 1946 hatchet slaying of his mother were to be used today at New York City to restore sight to two blind war veterans.

The stoic, frail 23-year-old Springfield, O, navy veteran bequeathed the corneas to the eye bank for sight restoration while waiting out his final hours.

Immediately after two 2,200 volt electric charges exacted the death penalty at 8 10 p. m. anonymous surgeons lifted the corneas from Koon's eyes, sealed them in a special container and dispatched them to New York City by plane

Koons, voluble and at ease throughout his final days of life, went to his death without a word to prison authorities, chaplains or any of the 20 witnesses who attended the execution.

The second electric charge was ordered by Dr J. B C. Eckstorm, prison physician, who refused to pronounce Koons dead after the first shock.

Koons' last hours were spent at a gigantic final meal—with two other inmates he invited to the repast—and during a brief visit with Rev. K. E. Wall, prison Protestant chaplain

Before his last meal, an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs Oliver Koons, of Columbus, visited him

Following the operation removing the corneas, Koons' body was taken to Springfield for burial

Convicted by a three-judge common pleas court at Springfield, the young slayer lost all attempts for stays of execution. Only Monday, Gov Thomas J Herbert abided by a recommendation of the state pardon and paroles commission that Koons' death sentence should not be set aside.

Bargaining Elections At Lima Firms Set

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, April 3—Collective bargaining elections within 30 days were ordered yesterday by the national labor relations board for drivers, helpers and warehousemen of two Ohio breweries and three beer distributors

Firms involved are the Buckeye Brewing Company of Toledo, the Burkhardt Brewing Co, of Akron, the Lima Beer Distributors, H. W Thompson Distributing Co, Inc, and Shawnee Distributors, Inc., all of Lima.

Balloting will decide whether the employes wish to be represented by the AFL Truck Drivers, Warehousemen and Helpers union Local 908 or the CIO Brewery Workers union Local 50, or by neither.

Pickets Patrol Ohio College Building Site

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O, April 3—Capital university officials ceremoniously broke ground for a new $440,000 science hall yesterday. And then the first pickets arrived

Phil O'Day, secretary-treasurer of the Columbus Building Trades council said he had ordered the pickets. Further, he said, there would be at least one picket patroling the sector indefinitely.

O'Day's reason: The contract for construction of the science hall, student union and refectory had been awarded to a non-union contractor.

DEATH CAMP HEAD TO DIE

By The Associated Press

WARSAW, April 3 — Rudolf Hoess must pay with his own life for more than 4,000,000 lives snuffed out at Oswiecim (Auschwitz) extermination camp in the two and a half years he was Nazi commandant there.

The 47-year-old ex-colonel, on trial for three weeks, was sentenced to death last night by the nine-judge Polish supreme nuonal tribunal. The condemned man, wearing a green German officer's uniform, was calm and attentive as he listened through headphones to the hour-long reading of the judgment.

Hoess is permitted to ask President Boleslaw Bierut for clemency, but even should he do so this seemed certain to be denied No date was set for the execution.

MINE NEWS HELPS TO UNSETTLE STOCKS

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 3 — Coal mine news helped unsettle the stock market today and, while selling was unimpressive leaders generally backed down fractions to around 2 points.

Pre-holiday apathy ruled most of the proceedings.

Good earnings and dividends failed to do much for stocks concerned. Wall Street still was a bit bearish regarding the threatened telephone strike, business prospects, taxes and foreign affairs.

On the offside were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, Goodrich, Goodyear, Sears Roebuck, J. I. Case, Western Union "A," Santa Fe, Chesapeake and Ohio, Schenley, Barber Asphalt American Woolen, Dow Chemical, Eastman Kodak, Allied Chemical and Du Pont.

Resistance was displayed by Chrysler, Transcontinental and Western Air, Eastern Air Lines, J C. Penney and U. S. Lines.

Akron City Workers Vote Strike April 14

By The Associated Press

AKRON, O, April 3—A strike by city employes who are members of the CIO-United Public Workers has been scheduled for 6 a. m April 14 by officers and stewards of the union local in a move to back up demands for a wage increase.

A vote of the membership last Sunday authorized a strike.

The local represents workers in the street repair, street cleaning, garbage collection, parks and sanitation departments.

The union has asked a 20 cents hourly raise, in which it has agreed to have included a $15 a month bonus granted last fall

FIRE DESTROYS LIMA AIRPORT FIXTURES

By The Associated Press

LIMA, O, April 3—Fire started by an acetylene torch wiped out the Lima Municipal airport installations four miles west of the city, and injured one man last night.

Damage was estimated by Airport Manager Charles J. Parsons at $75,000

Two hangars and six light planes were destroyed in the blaze

Robert Fuller, 28, Geneva, O, received first and second degree burns, but was released after treatment.

Fuller, said Manager Parsons, was using the torch in one of the hangars. A nearby plane became ignited and the flames rapidly spread through the building and jumped to the fields other hangars

Volunteers from Elida, O, and a pumper truck from the Lima fire department fought the blaze futilely.

VETERANS' NEWS AND INFORMATION

Prepared by The Public Relations Service, Veterans Administration, Branch Office No. 6, 52 S. Sterling street, Columbus, 8, Ohio. Phone Main 6361; Ext. 281.

Student Vets Submit VA Form by April 20

The Veterans Administration today asked the cooperation of the 201,044 student veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky in a survey to determine their educational training intentions after June 1. The total includes 99,800 in Ohio.

VA seeks specifically to learn if veterans plan to attend school during the summer months, whether they desire subsistence payment for accrued leave and if any anticipated subsistence checks should be sent to other than their present addresses.

Officials at the VA's tri-state branch office in Columbus said every student veteran must submit to his VA training officer VA Form 7-1908 in duplicate before April 20, setting forth the required information. These forms are available from training oficers at every educational institution in the three states where veterans are in training.

The survey does not affect veterans who are enrolled in job-training programs.

Payment of subsistence allowances to student veterans will cease about June 1. Veterans will continue to receive subsistence payments only by denoting on VA Form 7-1908 that they will continue their studies during the summer months.

Regardless of whether they plan to continue their training during the summer all veterans are urged to submit the specified form in duplicate before April 20 in order to keep VA records complete and up-to-date.

Student veterans who wish to have any anticipated subsistence checks sent to addresses other than their present address after June 1 may obtain a form letter from their training officer. This letter should be submitted to the training officer with the Form 7-1908.

Student veterans are entitled to two and one-half days of leave for each month they have been in training. If they desire to accept the accrued leave, for which subsistence payment will be made, the amount of leave will be deducted from their period of eligibility.

Training Available To Severely Disabled Vets

A campaign to inform approximately 10,000 severely disabled World War II veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky of the vocational rehabilitation opportunities available to them at government expense is being started by the Veterans Administration.

The survey will cover all World War II veterans who are receiving compensation for disabilities of 70 per cent or more in degree and who have not applied for education or job-training benefits.

In letters to 5,000 severely disabled veterans in Ohio, 2,500 in Michigan and 1,500 in Kentucky, VA will outline the rehabilitation benefits of Public Law 16 (Vocational Rehabilitation Act). Inclosed with each letter will be an application for vocational rehabilitation.

Veterans who fail to notify VA of their intentions regarding vocational rehabilitation later will be contacted personally by VA training officers and vocational advisers. Those expressing a desire to be considered for rehabilitation will be given advisement and guidance by VA, after which VA will make every effort to place them in educational or job-training courses.

Vets May Renew NSLI At Same Premium Rates

World War II veterans who have allowed their National Service Life Insurance term policies to lapse may apply for reinstatement at the same premium rates which were in effect prior to the date of lapse. VA insurance officials said that despite the fact the veteran is older and his insurance liability greater than when he originally took out his term policy, the premium rates upon reinstatement are the same as at the original issuance date of the policy.

18,040 Tri-State Vets Receive Farm Training

Active participation by World War II veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky in agricultural training under auspices of the Veterans Administration showed a sharp increase during the first three months of this year.

VA officials said 18,040 veterans now are taking farm training in the three states, including 5,350 in Ohio. In addition to practical farm instruction, most of the veterans also receive related training through classroom work in schools. Approximately 740 schools in the three-state area, including 200 in Ohio, now are offering this type of instruction.

The on-farm training program is divided into two phases—self proprietorship and employer-trainer. Self proprietorship training is for veterans who own, rent or lease the farms on which they reside. The employer-trainer program enables veterans to receive training on the farms of experienced and successful farm operators. Various state and local committees in the three states are cooperating with VA in affording veteran trainees the best possible guidance and technical advice.

Questions and Answers

Q. Does my converted National Service Life Insurance have a cash surrender value?

A. Yes. All converted policies have cash surrender values, paid-up insurance and automatic extended term insurance values, together with policy loan provisions, effective after the policy has been in force one full year.

Q. Is it true that GI insurance pays an insured veteran $5 per month for each $1,000 of insurance in force while he is totally disabled?

A. If the veteran pays the necessary extra premium, he will be paid $5 per month for each $1,000 of insurance in force after he has been totally disabled for six consecutive months. Application for the total disability income provision may be made at the time application is made for NSLI or at any time thereafter while the insurance is in force under premium paying conditions.

Get Welcome Relief From Stomach Gas, Sour Food Taste

Do you feel bloated and miserable after every meal? If so, here is how you may rid yourself of this nervous distress. Thousands have found it the way to be well, cheerful and happy again.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice, plus rich red blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with overdoses of soda and other alkalines to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and repair. Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

HERBERT SHIES FROM FARM BUREAU FIGHT

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 3—Gov. [illegible] Herbert adopted a [illegible] policy today towards [illegible] between the Ohio Farm Bureau and its former lobbyist, [illegible] Bath, now with the state [illegible] department.

The governor said he might [illegible] statement later in a conference to be held with Bath, Agriculture Director Frank Farnsworth and farm bureau directors to inquire into criticism of [illegible] action by Bath.

The group conferred at length [illegible] yesterday in the governor's office. Mr. Herbert then was closeted another hour with Farnsworth and Bath after the others had left. All three said they had nothing to report but indicated that the matter would be handled as a private row which the administration intended to watch from the sidelines.

Among the session were bureau directors Ben VanGordon of Butler county, James West of Lake county, Roscoe Caldwell of Clermont county, Ralph Verian of Stark county, and Harry Limebaugh of Franklin county and Bureau Counsel Henry S. Ballard

Lady's Arm Was Bent Up Double Like A Jack-Knife

One lady recently stated that her arm used to become doubled up like a jack-knife. She couldn't move her arm up or down because her muscles were stiff with rheumatic pains and the joints were swollen. She said she was ashamed to leave her house because people would stare at her. Finally she got RHU-AID and says she now can raise her arm above her head and the swelling left her elbow and shoulder. The awful pain and stiffness is gone. She is enjoying life once more and feels like some other woman" since taking this New Compound.

RHU-AID contains Three Great Medicinal Ingredients which go right to the very source of rheumatic aches and pains. Miserable people soon feel different all over. So don't go on suffering! Get RHU-AID. Sold All Drug Stores throughout this section —Adv.

NIL Is Patented! NIL Is Odorless! Nothing Else Works Like NIL!

Now You Can

NIL that Odor!

T. M. Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

DEODORIZE MUSTY BASEMENTS; SEWER TRAPS

TAKES "B.O." OUT OF COATS FAST

KILLS TOILET BOWL ODORS INSTANTLY!

TAKE SMOKE, OTHER ODORS, OUT OF UPHOLSTERY

EASY TO DEODORIZE USED DIAPERS

ENDS GARBAGE ODOR WITH DAILY SPRAYING!

DESTROYS PET ODORS QUICKLY; EASILY!

New Kind of Scientific Deodorant (Not a Tell-Tale Perfume) Pays for Itself Dozens of Times! See Uses Below for Proof!

TAKES "B.O." OUT OF COATS . . . Just spray lightly in underarm area of coat. No need to risk offending through this frequent, but unsuspected, source of odors. NIL may pay for itself, many times over in reduced cleaning bills.

MUSTY CLOTHES CLOSETS lose their odors within a few seconds after spraying with NIL. Use a light NIL mist on walls and outer garments in closets.

FRESHEN MUSTY BASEMENTS. Just spray on walls, floors, or directly on areas where odors originate.

MILDEW ODORS EASY TO KILL NOW! Simply spray mildewed cloth, paper, or other material and spray area where it has been. Mildew odor will no longer "linger on".

AN ODOR-FREE NURSERY is a blessing to mothers—and guests! If child vomits or breaks training, spray NIL on floor, furniture, and clothes affected after removal from child.

EVEN DIAPER ODORS DISAPPEAR after a NIL treatment. Just spray used diaper, after removal from baby, and also diapers in can or bag.

SICKROOM PATIENTS feel better, eat better, when they are not affected by odors from bedpans, bandages, etc. Visitors appreciate it. Spray NIL on outside of offensive bandages; spray bed-pans after using.

ODORS IN UPHOLSTERY caused by pets, spilled drinks, tobacco smoke, or burns, will disappear instantly when areas are sprayed lightly with clean, safe, odorless NIL.

TOBACCO ODORS AND "MORNING AFTER" ODORS from alcohol, smoke, etc., disappear rapidly. Spray curtains, drapes, furniture (avoiding varnished surfaces) in room.

DOG OWNERS AMAZED WITH NIL'S fast, low-cost action in keeping homes free of animal odors. Spray NIL where dog lies or sleeps. Spray or dampen dog, or apply with plastic or rubber comb. Long haired dogs must be treated with comb for real effectiveness. If animal commits a nuisance, spray affected spot to deodorize rug, floor, furniture, etc.

NOW MANY WHO LOVE DOGS, even in small apartments, can love them more! Many who would like to own a dog can now feel the odor-barrier to their enjoyment has been removed.

CAT ODORS GO TOO! Spray cushions, sofa, chairs, other spots cat favors; also spray cat's sand-box with NIL.

BIRD CAGE ODORS EASY TO KILL! Between cleanings, simply spray paper in bottom of cage with NIL.

GETS RID OF "KITCHEN ODORS" from onion, fish, cheese, etc. Moisten cloth with NIL and wipe cutting-board, sink-board, etc. where you have been working with "strong" foods. Rinse board with water.

STOPS SINK AND SEWER ODORS FAST, with only a spoonful poured into the drain. Allow to stand a few minutes.

NO MORE SMELLY GARBAGE CAN—just spray the garbage in can daily. Also spray inside, before and after washing out can. NIL kills residual odors—keeps smell out of your home.

A CLEAN, ODORLESS TOILET BOWL is a sign of a fastidious housewife. Just spray NIL on and in bowl once a day.

WIPES OUT CLOTHES HAMPER ODORS. Just spray in hamper occasionally as dirty clothes accumulate.

TRAILER DWELLERS HAIL NIL. Quickly eliminates "musty" odors, smoke odors, cooking odors that soak into drapes, rugs, upholstery. Makes up for lack of ventilation; a quick daily spray with NIL usually keeps trailer interior as fresh as an open porch.

CAR OWNERS OVERJOYED at the way a NIL spray gets odors out of upholstery and rugs. Tobacco smoke, dog odors, smells from odorous things you carry in the car, all go like magic.

ODOR OF DEAD MOUSE OR RAT GOES FAST with a quick NIL treatment. Spray animal, remove, and spray spot where it has lain.

KILLS EVEN SKUNK ODORS! Soak affected garments in NIL, and wash NIL on skin and hair of animal until odor disappears.

HUNTING-JACKETS, FISHING CLOTHES need NIL—get blood, feather, fish and similar odors out of game-pockets and off your fishing pants and jackets.

A TRULY ODORLESS REST-ROOM in public places, stores, service stations, etc., is not only a blessing to patrons—it's a good-will money-maker for you. Where many products simply "mask" one odor with another, NIL completely destroys rest-room odors without leaving an odor of its own. Spray NIL on and in toilet bowl, on floor, in drains.

HUNDREDS OF COMMERCIAL USES FOR NIL—wherever odors of any kind create a bad effect on either workers or patrons. For plant, home or office, no other product can equal NIL's fast, simple action in destroying embarrassing odors! Write Drug Dept., Skinner Mfg. Co., Omaha, Nebraska.

"NIL Kills Even Odors I Thought Nothing Could Help!"

says Mrs. S., a NIL user

"Why do I like NIL?" writes Mrs. S. "I couldn't stop with giving you just one reason—I have at least four! First: I like NIL because it is odorless. Perfume deodorants are embarrassing to me because they suggest to visitors that maybe I'm a poor housewife who can't keep her house clean and odorless. NIL never embarrasses me.

"Then, I like NIL because it kills odors I thought couldn't be killed—like [illegible] dogs and cats, and keeping our wet basement from [illegible] moldy.

"Also, I like NIL, because with its help I can keep my dog in the house without embarrassing odors. I never [illegible] anything that kill so many odors, so fast, as NIL—and NIL really seems a bottle out of me!"

Yours, with love, S. "You can't believe NIL can't [illegible] and you'll [illegible] a bottle of NIL today—[illegible]—and try it!"

Money Means Little in 'Poor Man's Bermuda'

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Writer

OCRACOKE, N. C., April 3 — Ocracoke Island, a 16-mile-long curve of sand some 19 miles off the North Carolina mainland, is a "poor man's Bermuda" where a [illegible] and a woman once lived to be 117 years old.

It is a timeless isle where money means little and a man has to [illegible] hard to find anything to worry about. There are really only three things to do here — fish, hunt ducks and geese or just sit and listen to an everlasting wind pour the sea against the sand with a muffled "flup flup flup."

Hal Boyle

Some wealthy people spend a lot of travel money "if" to some place to do these things—which the island's population of 700 enjoys free.

The world warped by Ocracoke during the war between the states. Before that it had been a notorious pirate hangout, a focal point of operation for shore wreckers — some of whom made a business of luring ships onto reefs, and an important port of entry.

Peaceful By-Passed Village

Now it is a peaceful, by-passed fishing village. You don't have to buy a state automobile license because there is only one small, concrete road, built by the Navy. But it doesn't go anywhere.

There are no police and no jails. The island was peopled by pirates and shipwrecked sailors, but there hasn't been a murder for more than one hundred years.

"A couple of the boys act up occasionally," said C. F. Boyette, manager of the village hotel. "But we don't want the trouble to get on over to the mainland and spread out a reputation."

There is no consumer mortgage on Ocracoke, no doctor, no street cars, no saloons or drug stores, no race problems.

The one Negro family on the island has been there for three generations. Its members attend the white church and school and are well liked.

There is a legend that the pirate Blackbeard named the island. To elude pursuers, he reported to have excavated [illegible] patiently, "Oc, Cora Cora [illegible]" or sea words, somewhere, [illegible] be mixed as Ocracoke—so the Arab sailor would be fooled.

Actually it is plain Ocracoke [illegible] of dull, so to speak.

The two chief island families are the Howards and the Wahabs—[illegible] are descended from William Howard, a quartermaster for Blackbeard who escaped hanging, and an Arab sailor washed ashore in the 18th century. The families are deeply intermingled. "Everybody on this island is run a little related—if you could trace it back," one old resident.

The islanders are rugged, dependent and retain vestiges of the speech of Elizabethan England. They are friendly and curious to outsiders but [illegible] pressed by "important" people.

HIGHS PROS AND CONS OF "TEST TUBE" BABIES

Publication Presents Different Views on Subject.

By The Associated Press

LONDON April 3 — Having "test tube babies was condemned as a mockery and defended as a boon to childless homes in a series of lectures published today by the Public Morality Council, sponsored by churches and sociologists to study family problems, publicized when delivered at a private conference last April in the hope that couples might "arrive at a balanced judgment of their own."

The issue was important here because of the declining population, a high rate of childless marriages, and the number of unmarried women and young widows and widowers of husbands and children by the war.

Most churchmen said artificial insemination is "degrading," and dangerous unless the donor is a woman's husband.

Doctors who treat couples unable to reproduce normally said artifical insemination, either by the husband or a stranger, was "often justifiable because it will bring into many homes happiness where unhappiness previously existed and tend not to destroy but to safeguard the marriage."

Lawyers said children born after artificial insemination by a stranger are illegitimate.

NEVADA COUPLE TO WED

BUCYRUS — The approaching marriage of Miss Mary Lucille Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jacobs and Donald Tracey Hoover, son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus Hoover, both of Nevada, has been announced. The wedding will take place early in June.

Winners Get Prizes In Plane Contest

Prizes were awarded to the winners in a model plane contest held last Sunday when the Marion Prop Busters club met Tuesday night with William Tsumpes of 308 Franklin street. The contest was in rubber powered free flight and speed models.

In the rubber powered events, the first place was won by Robert Tsumpes, second by Robert Parshall and third by Jack Vail. Richard Blank took first place in the speed events and set a record for the club in that type with a speed of 101 plus. Second was won by Robert Parshall and third by E. Everett. Prizes were Class A gas model kits.

Another contest will be held April 20 at the Robert Blank farm if the weather is favorable. Two drafting boards will be given as prizes for winners of speed events and hand launched gliders. The gliders are to be of original design and construction. At the end of the season's flying activities Robert Blank will award a globe trophy to the club member with the highest amount of time logged by a Flying Cloud or Dynamo flying model.

EDISON — The Boundary W.S.C.S. will hold a community meeting Friday, April 11, at 7:30 p. m. Russell Dye of Mt. Gilead will talk on India.

PRE-SCHOOL CLINIC SCHEDULE MAPPED

County Health Program To Open Tuesday.

A program of pre-school health clinics for Marion county boys and girls who will start to school next fall will open next Tuesday and continue through May 6, according to an announcement today by Dr. N. Sifritt, Marion county health commissioner.

The pre-school clinics are conducted each year by the health department, under the sponsorship of local community groups, to provide general physical inspection for boys and girls who will be first graders in rural schools the coming fall.

The inspections will be conducted by Dr. Sifritt, assisted by the following nurses of the county health department: Miss Rita Hut, Miss Esther Mautz, Mrs. Anne Sedelmaier and Mrs. Gladys Andersen. Local doctors and dentists also are invited to assist with the inspections, Dr. Sifritt said. Where ailments are discovered children are referred to their local doctors and dentists. Participation in the program is voluntary.

Diphtheria toxoid also will be given to boys and girls during the inspections Dr. Sifritt stated.

Schedule of clinics listing dates and schools follow: April 8, Pleasant; April 9, Waldo; April 11, Grand Prairie; April 15, New Bloomington; April 18, Morral; April 21, Kirkpatrick; April 22, Claridon; April 23, Meeker; April 25, Green Camp and Campbell; April 29, Caledonia; May 2, Martel and May 6, LaRue.

Going To Bake Again?

HOME-BAKED TREATS . . . There's no substitute . . .

By CHARLOTTE ADAMS
Associated Press Food Editor

During the war a good many things happened to interfere with home baking. Many of us did a good deal of it anyway, but there were difficulties to overcome. Shortening was scarce, and wartime flour did strange things to some of our favorite recipes.

Now, however, except for sugar, which isn't always needed, everything we want for baking is available. The question arises whether we've become so accustomed to having our baking done for us commercially that we won't bother to go back to the home variety. I do not believe that for a minute. No cook worth her salt will deny that anything she bakes at home is better than the equivalent pie cake or bread from a bakery.

People who either can't or won't cook will offer plenty of patronage for bake shops. But we who feel it a pleasure and a privilege to be able to provide the best food for our husbands and children will gladly go back to adding home-baked treats to the list.

Here are a couple for your family's delectation.

Hungarian Coffee Cake

One cake yeast, 2 tablespoons lukewarm water, 1 cup milk, 2 tablespoons shortening, 3 tablespoons sugar, ¾ teaspoon salt, 3½ cups flour, approximately, 1 egg.

Soften yeast in lukewarm water. Scald milk. Add fat, sugar and salt. Stir until fat is melted. Cool to lukewarm. Sift flour and measure. Beat 1½ cups of the flour into the lukewarm liquid mixture. Add softened yeast and well-beaten egg and blend thoroughly. Add remaining flour. Turn out on a lightly floured board and knead until satiny (about five minutes). Place in a greased bowl, grease top lightly. Cover and let rise until double in bulk (about 1½ to 2 hours). Punch down.

Turn out again on lightly floured board and work with the hands to form a long roll about an inch in diameter. Pull off small pieces of dough and roll into balls about the size of a large walnut. Put together with filling as directed below.

Filling for Hungarian Coffee Cake

One-third cup melted fat, ½ cup sugar, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, ½ cup finely chopped nut meats ½ cup raisins.

Combine sugar, cinnamon and chopped nut meats. Dip dough balls in melted fat. Roll in sugar mixture. Place one layer of balls in bottom of well-greased tube cake pan. Sprinkle with raisins. Add second layer of balls. Sprinkle with remaining raisins, pressing them well into the crevices between the balls. (If left on the surface they become hard while baking and roll off.) Do not place the balls too close together in the pan as they need a little room to spread while baking. Cover and let rise once more until double in bulk (about 40 to 50 minutes.) Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) 25 to 30 minutes.

Quick Raised Rolls

One cup scalded milk, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoons sugar, 3 tablespoons melted fat, 2 yeast cakes, 3 cups sifted flour.

Combine milk, salt, sugar and melted shortening. When lukewarm, crumble yeast cakes on top and add 1½ cups flour. Gradually stir in enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Knead on a floured board until smooth and elastic, about 5 minutes. Place dough in a greased bowl, brush surface with melted shortening and allow to rise for an hour. Knead again, roll a half inch thick and cut as desired. Brush tops of rolls with melted shortening, cover and let rise an hour longer. Bake at 400-425 degrees for 15-20 minutes.

Carey Musicians Win District Recognition

Special to The Star

CAREY—Carey High school musicians received four Class one ratings in the North Central district solo and ensemble music auditions, held Saturday in Fremont. Also two Class two ratings and three Class three and four ratings were received.

Superior ratings were given to Joan Cole, soprano solo; Ann Schira, piano solo; Samuel McChesney III, trombone solo; and Jo-Ann Frazier, Joan Cole and Samuel McChesney III, trombone trio.

...cellent ratings were given to Richard Doran, flute solo; Charles Doran and Virginia Meek, baritone horn duet.

Three and four ratings went to Ruth Adelsperger, clarinet solo; Charles Doran, baritone horn solo; and Harold Strahm and Susan Boyce, trumpet duet.

The students receiving Superior ratings will participate in the state auditions to be held May 10 at Ohio State university in Columbus.

Harding Spring Sports To Begin with Calls Monday

8 Returning in Baseball, Wiley Reports; Track Outlook Still Uncertain.

By GEORGE ROEST

The spring sports program at Harding is scheduled to open Monday after school with calls being issued for track men and baseball players.

Eight regulars are returning to the diamond this season, giving Coach W. N. Wiley cause for being optimistic. Although there will be only a couple of carry-overs on the track outfit Coach Simpson said that over 75 boys are expected to show up for initial drills.

Wiley plans to waste no time in cutting his baseball crew down to fighting strength as veterans return to all positions except catcher, second base, and left field.

The big question mark will be left field. Dick Brown, regular shortstop last year, will be tried behind the bat and Jim Riley is expected to fill the gap left at second base when Ralph Weber graduated. Bill Mathias will be tried at short.

Wiley expects plenty of strength in the other departments. Don Zeisler will return to the first sack, Jim Hill will be back at third, and Dick Huddle and Bob Ralston are expected to again perform in right and center fields respectively.

Pitching Staff Back

The mound staff will include returnees Jack Owens, Jim Coss, and Edward Smeltzer.

A squad of 18 or 20 boys will be carried. A schedule of games will be announced soon.

Track will go through a building stage this year and Simpson has stated that he won't have any idea about what he has to work with until he has time to observe the hopefuls that turn out.

Improvements are being made on the field although the weather has hampered.

Forty hurdles are being constructed and high jump, pole vault and broad jump pits are being dug. These will be at the south end of the football field near the score board.

New Equipment Ordered

New standards for the jumps are to be obtained and rings for the discus throw and shot put have been ordered. The track will be recindered.

Simpson stated, referring to these improvements, that if nothing else was accomplished in track this season at least the school will be building in the right way to assure success in the future.

Meets now scheduled are: at Arlington, April 18 and at Ashland May 10. Harding, Arlington and Columbus West will vie at Arlington.

May Enter Mansfield Meet

Simpson would like to enter thinclads in the Mansfield meet April 19 but says he will have to have some excellent performers before making an entry. Approximately 110 schools from Kentucky, West Virginia, Indiana and Michgan are entered in this annual event.

School officials say that the spring sport system will be set up in such a way that boys will be able to perform with both squads if they qualify.

Grading of a baseball diamond and building of a backstop at the Harding practice field are planned. When this will be completed depends a lot on the weather.

Irish Decide Against Spring Sports Program

To prevent a generation of muscle-bound Irish athletes, St. Mary school officials have decided against a spring sports program.

With only about 50 boys enrolled, the same group must carry the ball in all sports and school officials believe their contingent of athletes are a bit sports weary.

JOHNNY - COME - LATELY—Henry Evans of Ruidoso, N. M., didn't get around to bowling until he was 79. Now at 86 he captains a team in the Ruidoso city league. He averages 176, has bowled 229 and thinks he could probably do better. He rolls a slow, accurate ball.

Fesler Blasts At Southern Schools

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 3 — Ohio State's new football coach, Wes Fesler, aimed a few sharp blasts today at "southern schools which invade Ohio and Pennsylvania for athletic talent."

Said the Buckeye grid tutor:

"Southern school agents are among us constantly * * * I would advise every Ohio boy to ask four questions for recruiting agents:

"'How much chance do I have of getting a good education at your university under your system of football?'

"'What happens to this grand scholarship if I get hurt?'

"'What happens to my scholarship if I don't quite make the football grade?'

"'How much chance do I have of leading normal college life under your system?'"

Fesler indicated the correct reply to the first and fourth questions would be, "none." To the second and third—"dismissal."

Oberlin Head Deplores Sports "Big Business"

By The Associated Press

MILWAUKEE, April 3—School and college athletics can be justified only as "sport and fun, not as big business," the president of Oberlin, O., college declared here last night.

Addressing the opening session of the 33rd annual conferece of the Midwest Physical Education association, Dr. William E. Stevenson termed emphasis on big time athletics in college "a most unwholesome state of affairs."

"We certainly are losing sight of our objectives to train adults and leaders when we permit school and college athletic contests to degenerate into Roman holidays," asserted Dr. Stevenson who was a member of the American 1,600 meter relay team that won the Olympic title in Paris in 1924.

The conference is being attended by 800 school and municipal physical education and recreation workers from West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois and Wisconsin.

It is quite doubtful that camels, as many suppose, can go without water for a week without great discomfort or physical danger. Two or three days is believed to be the limit.

Cub Manager Due Tomorrow

Nelson Burbrink, new manager of the Marion ball club, will arrive in Marion sometime tomorrow.

This will be the first season the 27 year old Burbrink has managed in organized baseball. He will get his first look at the Marion team Monday when spring training opens at the Marion ball park.

A catcher, he is five foot ten inches tall. Last season he caught for Davenport, Ia., in the class B 3-I league.

Club President W. Dexter Hazen says that he has received no word from Burbrink as to how or when he will arrive. He has been spending a few days with his parents in Cincinnati and may drive up from there.

Buck Swimmers Try Grand Slam

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., April 3 — Ohio State's tank team goes after the third leg of its second straight grand slam Friday and Saturday in the National AAU championships in the Buckeye pool.

Already holders of the Western Conference and NCAA crowns, Mike Peppe's proteges were rated an even bet to take the title and round out their second unbeaten season in a row.

Last week, at Seattle, the Bucks triumphed in the NCAA by 27 points over Michigan, but with unattached and club talent certain to pick up points in the AAU this one looks like a tougher test for the Ohio swimmers and divers.

If it is at all close, Ohio may have to rely on its divers to bring home the bunting. Last week Miller Anderson, Bruce Harlan, Jim Strong and Jack Calhoun finished in that order for the Bucks off the springboard.

HOT SHOT Harry Reeves, national all-around pistol shooting champion, got his start because of a warm day. He was aboard the USS Lexington at Quantanamo Bay, Cuba, during a hitch in the Marines in 1936. It was hot aboard ship and tryouts for a pistol team were being held ashore. Reeves volunteered — to get a cold drink—and made the team. He is now with the Detroit police force.

GOLF CLINIC BEGINS AT Y.M.C.A. TONIGHT

First session of the Y. M. C. A. golf clinic will get under way tonight at 8 p. m. at the Y. Buchaker, Galion professional, will instruct on the use of woods.

Movies will be shown following the lecture and a question and answer period held. The clinic is open to the public and Y officials expect a large turn-out of local divot diggers.

Baker, a native of Marion, has been winning golfing laurels since 1932 when he set a Mar-O-Del course record. He repeated his record-breaking feat at that course again in 1935.

He was pro at Mar-O-Del last season.

Baker has tied the course record at the Galion Country club where he is now pro, shooting a 32 for nine holes and a 67 for 18.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, April 3 — The other day a mid-western sports scribe commented that Phog Allen was fully ten days overdue with his annual blast against gambling in college basketball.

Maybe that's because the Kansas U. Coach, during the course of an inle winter, has had time to think on a broader scale.

Recent communiques from Phog have blasted not only gamoling, "with which we in the colleges are honeycombed," but lax officials, bullying coaches who help incite crowds to disorder (particularly in basketball), powerless conference heads, selfish faculty representatives, the "asinine N.C.A.A.," and college presidents who aren't doing anything about the situation....Dr. Allen's cure all is the appointment of a "czar" for college athletics who would spend some five years studying conditions as they exist and who then would formulate the necessary rules and enforce them....And maybe he has his own answer: "The faculty representatives do not want this czar because they do not want to ... render the power they ... possess — exactly the reason ... baseball moguls did not want ... other man of the Landis type.

Something Taken?

Jack Laken, the Cleveland bo... ing manager, checks in with ne... of his new middleweight fro... Brazil who goes by the intrigui... name of "No. 84".....Where ... got it isn't explained, but unle... the fighter is as good as Lak... claims he'll provide material ... plenty of gags—for instance, ... 84 looked like the wreck of ... 97.

It's Tag Team Wrestling Tonight

The boy with the perfect body, Gordon Hessell, will line up with his partner, Renee LaBell, tonight to try and beat the combination of Gil LaCross and Rufus Jones. Several weeks ago the team of Jones and LaCross was too rough and got disqualified but that won't be necessary tonight for both LaBell and Hessell are rated as two of the fastest and cleverest men in the game and their speed should offset anything the Jones-LaCross combination has to offer. The two thirty-minute bouts before the two-hour maingo will pit LaBell against LaCross and Rufus will tangle with Hessell. It's another all-star attraction with plenty of action, so if you haven't your ringside seat call 2745 after six for them.

Don Temple and Phil Windslow will open the show at 8:30 with ten-minute prelim.—Adv.

Nelson Won Open

Other developments during the month included a win by Byron Nelson in the Augusta Open . . . the winning of the Stanley Cup by the Detroit Red Wings over the New York Rangers . . . a new pole vault record of 14 feet, 8½ inches by Bill Sefton and Earle Meadows of Southern California . . . the 17th consecutive win for Carl Hubbell, a 3-0 three-hitter over Boston. King Carl had notched 16 in a row in 1936.

GOLFERS FACE SOGGY GOING IN TOURNEY

By The Associated Press

AUGUSTA, G., April 3—Soggy fairways greeted a field of 57 of golf's most talented today as the 11th annual Masters Tournament began with a half dozen players sharing the role of favorite.

Heavy rains of the past few days prevented cutting of the fertile, rolling 6,800-yard national course and left casual water in many spots. A bridge on the 12th hole was still under water yesterday.

Established in the favorite's niche were Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., Bobby Locke of South Africa, Lew Worsham of Washington, D. C., Herman Barron of White Plains, N. Y., and Carey Middlecoff of Memphis.

Iberia Cagers To Get New Uniforms Next Fall

Special to The Star

IBERIA, April 3—Coach Ronald Sommerville, Iberia Presidents' basketball coach has announced that the cage squad will wear new uniforms in their preliminary game with Johnsville, next fall.

The new suits consist of gold colored T shirts lettered in white with maroon trim; white trousers with wide maroon belts and white jerseys with gold letters and numerals trimmed in maroon.

School officials also announce the purchase of new baseball uniforms for the team. Definite schedules have not been released due to the lack of interest among students for baseball.

KENTON DRIVER FINED

KENTON—Clyde White of near Kenton was arraigned in the Kenton mayor's court Wednesday on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to 60 days in the county jail. White was apprehended by the state highway patrol.

Sycamore Leader Editor Quits After 40 Years at Desk

Special to The Star

SYCAMORE—H. C. Ramsdell, who for 40 years has edited and published Sycamore's weekly newspaper, has seen his last issue go to press. "The Leader" is now under new management and the editor is retiring from active duties. Mr. Ramsdell came to Sycamore Feb. 4, 1907, from Utica, N. Y., where he was manager of a large commercial print shop. He purchased the Leader from Phil J. Heinlam. He could and did do anything necessary to be done about a newspaper office from keeping his equipment in running order to writing editorials about the problems of the day.

The new owners are Mr. and Mrs. John Hudgins of Valparaiso, Ind. Both are experienced in the newspaper business and their first issue of the paper will be published this week. The Hudgins have two children who with their mother will come to Sycamore in a few weeks.

The plans of Mr. and Mrs. Ramsdell are indefinite but they will probably spend the summer at their Lakeside cottage.

New Disease Strikes Wyandot Pig Crop

Special to The Star

UPPER SANDUSKY, April 3—The spring pig crop in Wyandot county is seriously threatened by a contagious disease believed to be a form of infectious Enteritis. No treatment has yet been found, veterinarians say, that is completely effective, but some cases seem to benefit from the feeding of an alkalized compound with a thin slop of bran.

Sometimes pigs from apparently healthy sows are infected and in some cases the sows are also stricken. Pigs over seven days old appear to be slightly more resistant but many litters have been wiped out in the first week. Sows that survive the illness dry up and cannot suckle their pigs.

Les Fleming May Be Tribe's First Sacker

By The Associated Press

TUCSON, Ariz., April 3 — Les Fleming may open the season at first base for the Cleveland Indians if he continues to hit, Manager Lou Boudreau indicated today.

Boudreau has been disappointed in Eddie Robinson, the International league's most valuable player last year. His hitting against lefthanders has been especially weak.

Outfielder Pat Seerey continued to be the good news in the Tribe camp. Fat Patrick became a hero again yesterday when his ninth-inning single with the bases loaded drove in two runs and gave the Indians a 5 to 4 triumph over the Chicago White Sox.

Apri Fool Pearl Turns Out To Be Real Thing

By The Associated Press

COLLINGSWOOD, N. J., April 3—Here's a bit of April Fool addenda:

Lewis M. Westcott, sea food house proprietor, opened an oyster and found an object which looked like a pearl.

"It's just a rusty old April Fool gag," his brother-in-law told him.

Westcott took the object to a jeweler who told him the rusty joke was worth $200 to $300.

Programs on the Air

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, April 3—A different approach in radio forum broadcasting combining the dramatic effect of a court room setting with audience participation, is to be tried by the MBS network. The program, titled "Opinionaire," is to have its introduction from Wahington next Wednesday night.

For the opening broadcast, the question "on trial" is "Should the U. S. use funds abroad to stop Communism?" Witnesses are Paul Porter, recently returned from a survey in the Near East, including Greece, and Sen. Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado.

In tribute to the four Army chaplains who went down with the S.S. Dorchester in 1943, "Warriors of Peace," presented by ABC in cooperation with the Army recruiting service, will broadcast a special Easter dramatization of "The Chaplains' Corps" Sunday, April 6, at 3 p. m.

The program will dramatize the history of the Army Chaplain Corps, highlighting the heroic action of the four chaplains on the troop transport torpedoed off Greenland four years ago. The chaplains, Rev. Clark V. Poling of Schenectady and Rev. George Fox of Cambridge, Vt. Protestants; Rev. John P. Washington of Newark, a Catholic, and Rabbi Alexander I. Goode of Washington, a Jew, were awarded Distinguished Service Crosses, posthumously, by the war department.

The ABC broadcast will tell how the chaplains took over on the torpedoed transport, handing out lifebelts, assisting soldiers into lifeboats, and in the final action of their heroism, removing their own life jackets so that four other men might live.

All times given are Eastern Standard Time. Erroneous listings, if any, are caused by last-minute changes made by stations and networks.

CARDINGTON SERVICE

Good Friday services at the St. Paul Lutheran church at Cardington will be at 8 p. m. with a confessional service to be held in preparation for the Easter communion. Easter Sunday morning, Sunday school will be at 9:30 with the communion service at 10:30. Rev. Charles Stroh, pastor, will preach on the theme, "What Stone?" At 8 o'clock in the evening, the senior choir will present a cantata, "Crown After Cross."

EASTER CANTATA

An Easter cantata entiled, "The Cross Triumphant," will be presented by the choir of the St. John's Lutheran church at Windfall Sunday evening. It is under the direction of Curtis Rengert. The music of the cantata is well-known Easter hymns and the words are the Biblical account of the resurrection and the first Easter. Between the groups of numbers, the Junior choir of the church will give several anthems. The public is invited to attend.

LEGAL NOTICE

Arthur B. Curran and Delia Curran, his wife, who reside at Eau Claire, Wisconsin, Charles Curran and Ruth Curran, his wife, who reside at Hornell, Paul Curran, who resides at 1014 West 21st Street, Des Moines, Iowa and Margaret Locke Curran whose place of residence is unknown and cannot be ascertained, will take notice that on the 2nd day of April, 1947, the plaintiff, Dorothy A. Wearley as Administratrix of the estate of Anna T. Curran, deceased, filed her petition against them, among others, in the Probate Court of Marion County, Ohio, the same being Cause No. 16365 in said Court for the sale of real property owned by the decedent, Anna T. Curran, which real property is bounded and described as follows: Situated in the County of Marion, State of Ohio, and in the City of Marion, to-wit:

Known as being part of lot number eight (8), (new number therefor being three hundred and thirty-five (335) in Sloan's Second Addition to the Village, now City of Marion, Ohio and bounded and described as follows:

Commencing at a point in the west line of Windsor Street in said City, eighty (80) feet south of the southeast corner of lot heretofore sold and conveyed to George B. Curran by deed dated July 3rd, 1906, recorded in Vol. 166, page 542, Deed Records of Marion County, Ohio; thence west on a line parallel with the south line of said George B. Curran's lot, to the west line of said lot number three hundred thirty-five (335); thence south along the west line of said lot number three hundred and thirty-five (335) one hundred and eighteen (118) feet, more or less, to the north line of land formerly owned by Sarah D. Wyatt; thence east along the north line of said Wyatt land to the West line of Windsor Street, thence North along the west line of Windsor Street, one hundred and eighteen (118) feet, more or less, to the place of beginning.

The prayer of said petition is for the sale of said real property to pay the debts of said decedent and a part of the relief sought is the barring of all of the defendants herein, among others, from all right, title and interest in and to the aforementioned real estate and for other relief. Said defendants are required to answer said petition on or before the 5th day of May, 1947, or judgment will be rendered against them.

Dorothy A. Wearley, Executrix of the estate of Anna T. Curran, deceased.

Dick Tracy By Chester Gould

MORAY IS A FLASHY CHARACTER... A GAMBLER...WITH A HOOKED NOSE, POPEYES, BIG TEETH AND A PERPETUAL GRIN...
HE FOUND OUT SOMETHING ABOUT MY PAST.. SOMETHING I HAD THOUGHT ONLY THE MANGLER KNEW. HE THREATENED TO EXPOSE ME IF I DIDN'T INTRODUCE HIM TO LADDIE GAYLORD.
GAYLORD, THE STAR OF THE PICTURE IN WHICH I AM TO RECEIVE MY FIRST PART, FANCIES HIMSELF A GAMBLER.. BUT HE'S JUST A SUCKER!
THEY MET AT MY COCKTAIL PARTY THIS EVENING AND LEFT EARLY. MORAY IS PROBABLY SHEARING HIM RIGHT NOW!
MORAY HAS YOU TAGGED AS A PERFECT ENTREE TO THE HOLLYWOOD SUCKER SET. WE'VE GOT TO QUEER HIS ACT!

Rip Kirby By Alex Raymond

ALL RIGHT, BRING IT OVER. BUT DON'T TRY TO HAND ME ANY FANCY IDEA OF WHAT THE STUFF'S WORTH.
IT'S ALL IN THE GRIP, HYPO.
SEEMS TO ME WE HAD MORE STUFF THAN THAT.
HYPO—YOU WOULDN'T, BY ANY CHANCE—SKIP OUT ON A COUPLE OF GUYS AFTER YOU FENCE THAT JUNK, WOULD YOU?
SKIP? LISTEN, ARE YOU NUTS? RELAX!

WATCH OUT... SOMEONE'S SIGNALLING US AHEAD.
JOE SLEEPS ON AS THE POLICE CARS ARE STOPPED BY HIGHWAY-PATROLMEN.
ABOUT THREE HOURS AGO... ONE OF OUR ROAD PATROL... WE FOUND HIM IN THE ROAD... MAY HAVE BEEN MABER WHO KILLED HIM.
I'D BET ON THAT!
ALL RIGHT, MEN... GET BACK IN THE CAR!
THANK HEAVENS, WE'VE HAD SOME WARM WEATHER OR WE'D NEVER BE ABLE TO GET UP THOSE MOUNTAINS, JOE.
UH... WHAT DID YOU SAY?.. EXCUSE ME, CAPTAIN... I WAS ASLEEP.

IF MADEMOISELLE WILL PERMIT...
SIT DOWN, MY CAUTIOUS FRIEND—
ORDINARILY, AMBITIOUS, FORCEFUL MEN LIKE YOURSELF DON'T TAKE SO LONG TO DISCOVER THAT I AM WORTH MEETING... ME, BOB!
IT WOULD SEEM, MISS TOY, THAT YOU KNOW SOMETHING OF ME — MY NAME... AND OTHER THINGS!
I HAVE WAITED HERE MANY DAYS FOR YOU TO APPROACH ME, BECAUSE OF WHAT IS WHISPERED ABOUT YOU IN THE BAZAARS AND CAFES.
AND WHAT DO THEY WHISPER ABOUT ME, ERMINE TOY?
THAT YOU ARE A MAN WHO PLOTS A VENTURE FOR HIGH STAKES... I ALSO FIND HIGH STAKES ATTRACTIVE.

CHLOE!
CHLOE! YOU LOOK LOVELIER THAN EVER!

LOVE'S PERILOUS PATH

By ADELE GARRISON

DR. TWITCHELL looked keenly at Mary's drawn face, her pallor, now that the hot bath had removed her make-up, and her too-brilliant eyes.

"What do you mean by 'behaving badly?'" he asked quietly, as his fingers slipped to her wrist, and I knew that he was counting her pulse while he listened to her answer.

"Why, I scared Auntie Madge out of most of her seven senses—or is it five?" she said, almost gaily, and I knew that she was steeling herself to "put on an act" for his benefit.

"I've always been known as a very 'quick study,'" she said, "and I've been very proud and vain-glorious about it. But de good Lawd, he sure took me down a peg today. Do you know it takes me almost three times as long to memorize my lines as it used to do? When that fact finally dawned on me, I got so thundering mad I went clear haywire. I called on both God and the devil, threw Aunt Madge's manuscript across the room, and told her I wanted to die. But I really don't, Dr. Twitchell! Honest, I don't!"

She managed a smile up at him—I wondered how she did it—and he smiled back at her as he laid her hand back on the bed.

Then he stood up and turned to me.

Not Necessary

"It isn't necessary to bother her by taking her temperature," he said. "I am sure it hasn't increased since I last took it.

"What she needs now is rest," he went on. "If you'll get me a glass of water, please."

I hurried to the bathroom, and returned with a glass of cold water. He had a pellet in his hand, and, as I brought the water to the bedside, he held out his other hand and took the glass from me.

"Open your mouth, please," he said authoritatively, and Mary obeyed him most docilely.

He put the pellet into her lips, gave another curt order: "Swallow it," and I saw the motion of Mary's throat muscles as the pellet went down.

Then he held the glass of water to her lips, ordering: "Drink at least half of it, but you may drain the glass if you wish."

She gulped the water thirstily, and then lay back against her pillows.

"Thank you," she said faintly, and Dr. Twitchell turned to me.

"I'll leave her in your hands now," he said. "When she falls asleep, see that she is covered warmly, but lightly, and open the window slightly."

He went out of the room, and Mary looked up at me with the mask of comedy vanished, and tragedy returned to her eyes.

"Did I do all right?" she whispered. "I didn't want to make you tell Dr. Twitchell all my ravings."

Will Go Into Huddle

"You were splendid," I told her. "Now, I'm going to sit down beside you and hold your hand until you go to sleep. And tomorrow you and I are going into a huddle over whatever it is that's troubling you. We'll conquer it together. I promise you that, on my honor."

"Darling Auntie Madge!" she whispered. "If anybody could help me, you could. But I don't believe anybody can."

A sob caught in her throat, and I pressed her hands more tightly. It was all I dared to do, for I wanted nothing to interfere with the effect of the drug the physician had given her.

And then she spoke, so sadly, so hopelessly, that I almost cried out myself.

"If only this sleep could be the eternal one!" she said.
